Honors Specialization in Kinesiology Sport Management (BA)

How many 1st year credits can I take?

A minimum of 5.0 first year credits must be taken. However, students are allowed to use up to a maximum of 7.0 first credits towards their degree if they choose.

What?

The curriculum of this specialization has been designed in such a way to incorporate sport management and complementary interdisciplinary courses including: introduction to sport management, organizational behaviour, sport marketing, international sport marketing and a field experience.

What courses count as Arts & Humanities Credits (Category B)

Students need 1.0 credits or equivalent from Category B, the Arts & Humanities Faculty.

Classical Studies	Speech
English	Theological Studies
Film Studies	Visual Arts
Languages	Women's Studies
Philosophy	Writing

Where Can I get my First Aid and CPR Level C?

Students can take a course through their local Red Cross or Saint John's Ambulance services. Additionally both the Student Emergency Response Team, SERT and Campus Recreation offer courses through out the year. Visit Info Source in the UCC for registration for a SERT course or go to campus recreation.

Progression from year 1 to year 2

We have 30 spaces in the Sport Management stream moving from year 1 to year 2. This is a limited enrollment module, meaning that the progression standard may fluctuate from year to year depending on how many students want to progress into this module and how good their grades are. Students will need a minimum 70% average with no grades less than 60%. Typically, over the past few years a student with a 70% average with no grades less than 60% has successfully progressed.

What are Essay Credits?

Students need 2.0 essay designated credits or equivalent. Essay courses are courses that will have a written word component. It may be an essay or written report. It will be at the professor's discretion.
Essay courses are designated by an "E" if it is a full course. I.E. Sociology 1021E. If it is a half-course it will be marked with either an "F" for first term or "G" for second term. I.E. Kin 2276F.

Graduation minimum average requirements?

Students must maintain a 70% average on their senior Kinesiology/Dance courses with no single grade less than 60%. Additionally, students must maintain a cumulative average of 65% with no fails.

What are Special Topics Courses?

Special topic courses are courses where the topic may change from year to year. In order to see what topic is being offered, go to the registrar's office timetable for that year and check in the "notes" section.
