

School of Health Studies

Graduate Studies Opportunities and Faculty Research Event

Tuesday, January 31, 2012 • 9 am – 12:30 pm

Room 322 • Arthur and Sonia Labatt Health Sciences Building

Interested in graduate school?

Join us and see what Western has to offer.

See presentations from award-winning researchers in the School of Health Studies on a variety of research areas, including:

- Obesity prevention and treatment
- Gerontology, aging and health
- Cancer and chronic conditions
- Parkinson's disease
- Health and music
- Health promotion and disabilities
- Seniors' health and independence
- Health promotion
- Type II diabetes
- Future of health care
- Sexuality, gender and health
- Voice and voice disorders
- Sociology of health and illness
- Nervous system development

Get information related to:

- Research programs
- Applying to graduate school
- Graduate student projects
- Finding a supervisor

Presented as part of Western's Career Week 2012: success.uwo.ca

For more information, visit:

www.uwo.ca/fhs/health_studies

The University of Western Ontario

