

VOYAGES AND JOURNEYS IN ANTIQUITY

UWO Department of Classical Studies
Graduate Student Conference 2016

K – Kiosk; CP – Conference Parking

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The UWO Graduate Conference Committee would like to extend its greatest gratitude to the following for their generous donations: The Department of Women's Studies, the Department of English, the Department of French Studies, the Department of Film Studies, the Department of Modern Languages, the Department of Classical Studies, and the Faculty of Arts and Humanities.

We would also like to thank Judy La Forme, Kathleen Beharrell, and Kelly Olson for their invaluable support. Without you, this event would not have been possible.

March 19, 2016

9:00 am-5:00 pm

International and Graduate Affairs Building Atrium

Programme Antemeridianus

9:00 am: Coffee and Registration (IGAB Atrium)

9:50 am: Opening Remarks (AHB 1B02)

Panel I: Voyages in Prose (Chair: Rowan Ash, UWO)

10:00 am: Stephen Ogumah (CUNY Graduate Center), “Crossing Boundaries: Anacharsis and Scyles in Herodotus Book 4.”

10:30 am: Paul McGilvery (UWO), “Movement and Narrative
Directions in Caesar’s Bellum Gallicum and Xenophon’s Anabasis.”

11:00 am: Kale Coghlan (Laval), “Polemic as a Means of Shaping the World.”

11:30 am: Coffee Break (IGAB Atrium)

11:45 am: Lucas Marincak (Ottawa), “Egyptian Travelogue in Coptic Hagiography.”

12:15 pm: Drew Davis (U of T), “Following the Footsteps of Caesar? Ammianus Marcellinus and Julian in Gaul.”

12:45–1:45 pm: Lunch Break (IGAB Atrium)

Programme Postmeridianus

Panel II: Journeys in Verse (Chair: Richard Parker, UWO)

1:45 pm: Tim Wright (UWO), “An Uncanny Meeting:
Eumaeus as Odysseus’ Double.”

2:15 pm: Kaitlyn Boulding (Dalhousie), “Katabasis and the Journey of Conversion Through Proba’s Centō.”

2:45 pm: Alin Mocanu (Laval), “A Generically Enriched
Proemtikon: Amores 2.11. 30-56.”

3:15 pm: Coffee Break (IGAB Atrium)

3:45 pm: Keynote Address: Jonathan Burgess (U of T),
“Narratives of Travel in Antiquity.”

4:30 pm: Closing Remarks

6:30 pm: Dinner at Bertoldi’s Trattoria (650 Richmond
St.)

