

EARTH SCIENCES 3314B SEDIMENTARY PETROLOGY

Description: Identification and description of various types of siliciclastic and carbonate rocks; the important characteristics of sedimentary rocks and their key sedimentary features for interpretation of present and ancient depositional environments; survey of diagenetic processes that alter original properties of primary sediments.

Prerequisites: Earth Sciences 2200a/b, Earth Sciences 2206a/b

Statement on Requisites: Unless you have either the requisites for this course or written special permission from your Academic Counsellor to enroll in it, you may be removed from this course and it will be deleted from your record. This decision may not be appealed. You will receive no adjustment to your fees in the event that you are dropped from a course for failing to have the necessary prerequisites.

COURSE SYLLABUS

LECTURES

Topics

Introduction to sedimentary rocks

Siliciclastic rocks: textures, fluid flow, sedimentary structures

Siliciclastic rocks: classification, provenance, tectonic setting, depositional environments, chemical weathering, diagenesis

Carbonate rocks: composition and classification, depositional environments, diagenesis

Evaporites, sulphates, BIF, chert, Earth's atmosphere and sedimentary deposits, mineral deposits and other sedimentary rocks

LABORATORY (One session = 3 hours)

Sessions	Topics
4	Composition and classification of siliciclastic rocks
4	Composition and classification of carbonate rocks
2	Composition and classification of other sedimentary rocks
2	Oral presentations

COURSE MATERIALS

Any sedimentology textbook can be used as a resource, but none are required.

METHODS OF EVALUATION

- Mid-term exam 1 hour (February 14th): 15%
- Final exam 2 hours (date TBA): 35%
- Quizzes (in-class): 10%
- Oral presentation (date TBA): 15%
- Lab assignments: 25%

ATTENTION: All lab assignments must be completed during each laboratory session. One quiz may be missed during the term, or the student may opt to remove their lowest quiz score from the total at the end of term.

Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence, at the following Web site: https://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic\_policies/appeals/scholastic\_discipline\_undergrad.pdf.

Plagiarism is a serious academic offence. The UWO Senate Academic Handbook defines plagiarism as "The act of appropriating the literary composition of another, or parts or passages of his writings, or the ideas or language of the same, and passing them off as the product of one's own mind." Students must write their assignments in their own words. Whenever students take an idea, or a passage from another author, they must acknowledge their debt both by using proper referencing, such as citations. For more information see Scholastic Offence Policy in the Western Academic Calendar.

If you are unable to meet a course requirement due to illness or other serious circumstances, you must provide valid medical or other supporting documentation to the Academic Counselling office as soon as possible and contact your instructor immediately. It is the student's responsibility to make alternative arrangements with their instructor once the accommodation has been approved and the instructor has been informed. In the event of a missed final exam, a "Recommendation of Special Examination" form must be obtained from the Academic Counselling Office immediately. For further information please see: https://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic\_policies/appeals/accommodation\_illness.pdf.

A student requiring academic accommodation due to illness, should use the Student Medical Certificate when visiting an off-campus medical facility or request a Records Release Form (located in the Academic Counselling Office) for visits to Student Health Services. The form can be found here: https://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic\_policies/appeals/medicalform.pdf.

Accessibility Statement

Please contact the course instructor if you require material in an alternate format or if you require any other arrangements to make this course more accessible to you. You may also wish to contact Services for Students with Disabilities (SSD) at 661-2111 x.82147 for any specific question regarding an accommodation.

Support Services

Students who are in emotional or mental distress should refer to Mental Health@Western http://uwo.ca/health/mental\_wellbeing/ for a complete list of options about how to obtain help.

Registrarial services are available at <http://www.registrar.uwo.ca/>.
