PhD QUALIFYING EXAMINATION READING LIST

English 9915 (SF)/ 9935 (PF)
TWENTIETH CENTURY BRITISH AND IRISH LITERATURE

In order to develop a wide-ranging competency to teach and research in the field of Twentieth Century British and Irish Literature, candidates will prepare a reading list according to the instructions and requirements below.

1. Instructions

i. Secondary Field Exam:

Students are responsible for all the titles listed under CORE TEXTS.

Students are strongly advised to become conversant with historical, literary critical and theoretical writings in the field.

ii. Primary

Students must be conversant with historical, literary critical and theoretical writings in the field.

Students are expected to expand upon the CORE reading list by adding 30-40 items.

In consultation with the committee, students may make substitutions to the list.

2. Exam Structure

1. The examination is divided into TWO sections. Select THREE passages from Part A. Choose TWO questions from Part B. Each question carries equal value.
2. You must give attention to all three genres—poetry, fiction, drama—in the examination paper as a whole. You are not, however, required to deal with all three genres in answering any single question, not are you required to give attention to all three genres equally.
3. Do not repeat discussion in detail of authors or works in your answers.
4. Reference should be made to works from early, middle, and late in the century, spanning a broad range of trends and movements.
