Academic Accommodation:
Instructors have been asked to include the following statement on their course outlines:
“Students seeking academic accommodation on medical grounds for any missed tests, exams, participation components and/or assignments worth (either alone or in combination) 10% or more of their final grade must apply to the Academic Counselling office of their home Faculty and provide documentation. Academic accommodation cannot be granted by the instructor or department.

Documentation shall be submitted, as soon as possible, to the Office of the Dean of the student’s Faculty of registration, together with a request for relief specifying the nature of the accommodation being requested.

The Student Medical Certificate (SMC) can be found at

The full policy is set out here:
http://uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/accommodation_medical.pdf

The new policy means that instructors are prohibited from setting make-up tests or extending deadlines unless and until students requesting such accommodation go through the proper channels.

Plagiarism:
Plagiarism statement: any instance of plagiarism with an intent to deceive will result in an F for the course and will be reported to the English Department and the Dean’s Office for further action.

Term Work:
Students must pass both term work and the final examination (in courses with final examinations) in order to pass the course. Students who fail the final examination (regardless of their term mark) automatically fail the course.
Learning Objectives:

- To develop an appreciation of non-dramatic literature of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries that unites historical observation and literary analysis. Emphasis will be placed on close reading and interpretative issues.
- To hone analytical and critical skills in both oral and written work.
- To develop confidence and competence in research practice.

Teaching/Learning Methods

- This class meets twice a week. Students should come to lecture prepared to participate in group discussion: read the assigned portions of the text in advance of class, and always bring the right text(s) to class with you.
