

APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION
COLLABORATIVE GRADUATE PROGRAM IN ENVIRONMENT & SUSTAINABILITY

SUBMISSION DEADLINE (FALL): September 14, 2010 (WINTER): January 11, 2011

Submit completed form to: Sheila Macfie, Chair Collaborative Environment & Sustainability Program, 2051 Biological & Geological Sciences Building (B&GS)

Student Name: _____ Student No.: _____

UWO Email: _____ Home Dept./Prog: _____

Degree: MSc/MA: _____ PhD: _____ Fulltime: _____ Part-time: _____

Start Date: _____ Current Term: _____

Supervisor(s): _____ Email: _____

(if applicable): _____ Email: _____

Advisory Committee: _____ Email: _____

(if applicable): _____ Email: _____

Key words describing research area: _____

Student Signature: _____ Date: _____

Supervisor Signature: _____ Date: _____

(if applicable): _____ Date: _____

Please note the following carefully:

Students in the Collaborative Environment & Sustainability Program are expected to:

- i. Fulfill all course and thesis requirements of their home department.
- ii. Have a member of their advisory committee who is a member of the Environment & Sustainability Graduate Program faculty group, but not in the student's home department/program.

Enroll in two graduate Environment & Sustainability courses in your first term:

Masters students:

EnvrSust 9011 Foundations of Sustainability (1.0 credits) (0.5 credit option available where student chooses to take an EnvrSust elective for remaining (0.5) credit).

EnvrSust 9410 Interdisciplinary Research Seminar (Pass/Fail)

PhD students:

EnvrSust 9111 Foundations of Sustainability (1.0 credits)(0.5 credit option available where student chooses to take an EnvrSust elective for remaining (0.5) credit).

EnvrSust 9420 Interdisciplinary Research Seminar (Pass/Fail)

Questions about program requirements should be directed to the Collaborative Program Chair: Dr. Sheila Macfie (smacfie@uwo.ca)