

2.5 year Full-Time Limited-Term Position
Arthur Labatt Family School of Nursing, Western University

The School of Nursing, with a proud 96 year history of academic and research excellence, seeks an emerging/accomplished academic. The term of the position is 2.5 years starting January 1, 2017, with potential for renewal. The successful candidate will support the continuing evolution and delivery of the BScN Collaborative and the Compressed Time Frame programs according to curriculum needs. Responsibilities may include classroom teaching, laboratory and simulation teaching, clinical teaching, scholarly activity, and service to the School, Faculty, University, and profession as appropriate. The majority of time will be dedicated to teaching (70-80%). The position requires a Master of Science degree in Nursing or a Master of Nursing. Preference may be given to individuals with a PhD or nearly completed PhD in Nursing or a relevant discipline.

The successful candidate will have a strong understanding and demonstrated application of adult learning principles; a learner-centered philosophy of teaching, learning, and evaluation; teaching experience at the baccalaureate level; and recent nursing practice experience. Knowledge and expertise in teaching and learning in flexible learning and simulated learning environments are assets. Candidates with a PhD and relevant teaching experience may be assigned to teach a graduate course as appropriate. Applicants will be a Registered Nurse (Regular or Extended Class) and hold a current license entitling them to practice with no restrictions with the College of Nurses of Ontario.

Rank and compensation will be commensurate with educational qualifications and experience.

Since 1878, Western University (<http://www.uwo.ca>) has been committed to serving our communities through the pursuit of academic excellence and by providing students, faculty, and community members with life-long opportunities for intellectual, social and cultural growth. We seek excellent students, faculty, and staff to join us in what has become known as the "Western Experience" – an opportunity to contribute to a better world through the development of new knowledge, new abilities, new connections, and new ways to make a difference.

Western University is one of Canada's leading research-intensive universities located in London, Ontario, with a vibrant population of 423,900. It is renowned for its academic and quaternary care health sciences centre and is supported by an Academic Health Sciences Network. The region is known for excellence and leadership in integrated teaching, research, and patient care. Educational and research programs are supported through strong partnerships with health care and community agencies throughout London and the Southwest Local Health Integration Network.

The Arthur Labatt Family School of Nursing is one of six units in a progressive Faculty of Health Sciences (<http://www.uwo.ca/fhs/>) and offers a number of academic programs in nursing at undergraduate, masters, and doctoral levels. Support for research development and teaching are available through the Nursing Research Unit, the Faculty, University, and Teaching Support Centre (<http://www.uwo.ca/tsc/>) respectively. Exceptional simulated learning environments in the School facilitate the application of professional knowledge and abilities. A new state-of-the art building for the School, including a high fidelity 16 bed simulation suite, is currently under construction. The building will be ready for January 2017.
