More than 1 in 3 Canadians will be told they have cancer at some point during their lifetime. An estimated one in four of us will die of the disease.

IT DOESN'T HAVE TO BE THIS WAY

By applying what we already know, we can cut Canada's cancer rates almost in half - in one generation.

IT'S TIME TO GO PUBLIC

Come and hear what Stephen Lewis has to say about the extraordinary power of everyday people to take control of cancer.
