

Top 10 Reasons to study in the BHSc Program at Western

1. High entrance standards and graduation rates.
2. Exciting modules including health promotion, community rural health, rehabilitation sciences, health sciences & biology.
3. Opportunities abroad, including international student exchange programs, alternative spring break and applied work experiences.
4. Wide variety of senior electives on health issues – Music and Health, Musculoskeletal Issues in Health and Sexuality, Gender and Health, and Professional Ethics.
5. Ability to work one on one with a faculty member in a research project of mutual interest for course credit.
6. Award-winning professors recognized for their teaching and research activities.
7. Strategically aligned to the World Health Organization's definition of health.
8. Earn a professional and BHSc degree at the same time – Business Administration, Nursing, Engineering, and Foods and Nutrition.
9. Your future of choice – careers in health, professional programs and/or graduate school (Master's and PhD in Health & Rehabilitation Sciences).
10. State-of-the-art 3-D anatomy classroom.

Our Aim

To provide the best student experience among Canada's leading research-intensive universities.