EXAMINATIONS AND QUIZZES:
One class project report with multiple sections
One class project presentation
One 3-Hour Final Examination
EVALUATION:
The final grade will be determined as follows:

Project report (4 sections) 40%
Project presentation 20%
Rounds presentations (4 sections) 10%
Final examination 30%

The final examinations are LIMITED OPEN BOOK

If a student is excused from writing a section of the class project report or presentation for legitimate reasons, and with the approval of the School Director, the weighting of the final examination can be adjusted accordingly.

ENGLISH:
In accordance with Senate and Faculty Policy, students may be penalized up to 10% of the marks on all assignments, tests and examinations for the improper use of English. Additionally, poorly written work with the exception of final examinations may be returned without grading. If resubmission of the work is permitted, it may be graded with marks deducted for poor English and/or late submission.

ATTENDANCE:
Any student, who, in the opinion of the instructor, is absent too frequently from class or laboratory periods in any course, will be reported to the Dean (after due warning has been given). On the recommendation of the Department concerned, and with the permission of the Dean, the student will be debarred from taking the regular examination in the course.

CHEATING:
University policy states that cheating; including plagiarism, is a scholastic offense. The commission of a scholastic offence is attended by academic penalties, which might include expulsion from the program. If you are caught cheating, there will be no second warning (see Scholastic Offence Policy in the Western Calendar)

NOTE:
The above topics and outline are subject to adjustments and changes as needed.
