COURSE DESCRIPTION
An introduction to philosophical and historical aspects of mental health. Topics will usually include: history of diagnostic categories and modern nosological systems; in-depth look at specific diagnostic categories and their treatments (e.g. depression, anorexia, addiction); analysis of key concepts such as ‘mental disorder’, ‘syndrome’, ‘disease’, ‘illness’, ‘symptom.’

COURSE OBJECTIVES
• Introduce students to historical and philosophical aspects of mental health
• Encourage students to formulate and defend their own views on those topics;
• Practice and improve critical thinking, reading, writing, and speaking skills;
• Foster professional skills and attitude in all aspects of the course.

TO CONSIDER
Some students may find the topics in this course emotionally distressing and challenging. If you have any personal concerns of this nature, please see your academic counselor.

This is an ‘essay’ designated course with considerable reading and writing requirements.

Class participation is required in this seminar course and regular attendance is mandatory. (See relevant provisions in the Academic Calendar.) Attendance will be taken.

Due Mon Dec 2 in class at 2:30 pm. and to Turn it in by Mon Dec 2 by 2:30 pm.

WEEKLY COMMENTARIES

Commentaries are small essay assignments and discussion stimulants written by students that may be read to the class by the instructor. They are meant to provide an in-depth analysis of some aspect(s) of weekly readings as well as writing practice for students.

Each student will submit 5 weekly commentaries, each due on a specific week. Commentaries must address weekly readings and can only be handed in on the week those readings are scheduled for discussion. No outside references are permitted.

Commentaries must directly address weekly readings for the week they are assigned for and raise one, two, or three points of interest for reflection and discussion: for example, things that surprised you, and why; things you agree or disagree with, and why; things you find confusing and why (plus suggested solutions).

Commentaries must make at least five direct citations to weekly readings using the Chicago Manual of Style 16th Edition Author-Date in-text citation and bibliographical format. (You can search Google or UWO library sites for this.) No footnotes or endnotes.

Commentaries must also:

• Be typed in 12-point font and written in single-spaced paragraph form;
• Be at least 2 pages, preferably 3 pages maximum, up to 4 pages.
• Have page numbering on each page;
• Have a title, course number and commentary submission date, your name (Last name first, first name second) and student number, on page 1, formatted exactly this way, in single-spaced format:
  Jasper’s on Delusion
  HS 4051G
  February 12, 2013
Last name, First name
Student Number #111111111

Commentaries that do not satisfy these formatting requirements will be penalized 1 full mark per error or omission to a maximum of 3 marks or may simply be returned.

Spelling errors, major grammatical errors, and multiple typos, will be penalized 1 mark each to a maximum of 3 marks. Lesser penalties may be applied as warning.

Please proof-read your commentary carefully. (Treat it like a job or scholarship application letter.)

COMMENTARY TOPICS AND DUE DATES
Commentary 1 due to Turn it in and in class Mon Sep 23
Commentary 2 due to Turn it in and in class Mon Oct 07
Commentary 3 due to Turn it in and in class Mon Oct 28
Commentary 4 due to Turn it in and in class Mon Nov 11
Commentary 5 due to Turn it in and in class Mon Nov 25

COMMENTARY GRADES
Commentaries will be graded out of 10 marks according to the following scale:
10 Outstanding - Could not expect more at this level
09 Excellent - Extremely well-developed interpretation and critical thinking
08 Very Good - Commendable interpretation with some good discussion
07 Good - Interesting interpretation with some discussion
06 Average - Average interpretation and discussion
05 Barely Acceptable - Weak interpretation and discussion
04 Not Acceptable - Significant errors or shortcomings
03 Not Acceptable - Major errors and shortcomings
02 Not Acceptable - Unacceptable academic work at this level
01 Not Acceptable - Unacceptable command of writing and grammar at this level
00 Not Acceptable - Commentary not submitted

As you are writing your commentaries, always ask yourself what a reader who had not read the texts you are writing about would be able to recover about those texts, as well as what they would learn about your opinions and reasons for those opinions.

You are expected to do your best to read all weekly materials and, when appropriate, incorporate and reflect an awareness of all those materials in your commentary. In some cases, it will simply not do to read simply one article or chapter from assigned readings.

Always endeavor to anticipate answers and objections to your own personal contributions in your commentaries.

Marks on commentaries may vary, since course readings vary widely in style and content, which in turn may pose very different challenges for interpretation and analysis.
COMMENTARY SUBMISSION
All commentaries must be handed in:

(1) In hard copy in class, before class begins, on their respective due date

And

(2) Electronically to Turn-it-in, before class begins, on their respective due date.

LATE COMMENTARIES
Late commentaries must be written on the weekly topics for which accommodation is provided, when accommodation is granted, and proof of accommodation for that exact day must be provided by your academic counselor. Otherwise, late commentaries will not be accepted and will receive a mark of ‘0’.

MID-TERM
The mid-term will be two hours long and consist of 3 essay-style questions worth 10 marks each and several short-answer questions worth a total of 5 marks. There will usually be a choice of 3 out of 5 possible essay questions. Short answer questions may include explanations or definitions of key concepts.

To prepare for the final exam you must attend all classes and review all assigned readings and class discussion notes up to the final exam date, using the main lecture raised in class as your guide. No other instructions will be provided.

FINAL ESSAY
You may write your final essay on any major topic discussed in class lectures or readings. Use Class Schedule headings and topics as a guide. Please seek permission for any topic you are unsure of. Essays that do not address a suitable topic area may be returned and late penalties will apply.

Essays should be 8-10 pages double-spaced and include at least 10 direct citations to course readings. Please use Chicago Manual of Style Author-date format for in-text citations and Bibliographical References.

The first page of your essay should include the following information:
   Essay Title
   Course Number
   Due date
   Last name, First name
   Student Number #111111111

All pages should be numbered except for the title page which has no page number and counts as page ‘0’.
Single marks will be deducted for all spelling errors and bad grammar. (Essays are marked out of ‘100’.)

ACCESSING DSM IV-TR ONLINE

The Diagnostic Statistical Manual of Mental Disorder, Fourth Edition Text-Revision (usually referred to as ‘DSM IV TR’), which is published by the American Psychiatric Association (APA) is an indispensable reference source for this course. You can reference citations from this text as: (APA 1994, 10). Then include the full reference in your bibliography. We may also use the new DSM 5 in so far as it is available online.

Accessing the 4th Text Revision of the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders of the American Psychiatric Association (DSM IV-TR) from the University of Western Ontario Library Catalogue System.

(1). Go to UWO Library Online Catalogue; (2). Search for ‘DSM IV TR’ under Titles; (3) Find: ‘Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders DSM-IV-TR Electronic Resource: Available Online’; (4). Click on the above link to select it; (5). On the next screen, click on the link called ‘Connect to Internet Resource’. (6). You will reach the STAT! Ref online library; (7). You should now have a STAT! Ref screen with a table of Contents on the left and text on the right; (11). Find your assigned readings by clicking on them in the Table of Contents on the left hand side of your screen.

Note: You can access the STAT! Ref. online site directly from any UWO computer by going to the Western Libraries Homepage and selecting ‘Databases by Title’.

CLASS EMAIL POLICY

- Emails that do not mention (i) the course subject designation number and (ii), the student’s full name and student number, will be deleted.
- Only emails with a ‘uwo.ca’ address will be answered.
- Only emails that deal with administrative matters will be read.
- Questions regarding course content must raised in class or during office hours.
- It may take up to 3 days to answer your email.

FILMS

Films will be shown during regular lecture hours and all students are expected to attend. Due to logistical and practical realities surrounding the availability of films, these can only be shown once. The films are designed to enrich your experience of the materials covered in the course. But like guest lectures or other special events, they are a one-time thing. If you miss a film, do your best to discuss the film with friends. Please note that films are not available for lending under any conditions. Some films may be available through the UWO library. Please check your course outline for film titles.

ADDITIONAL STATEMENTS

Student Code of Conduct
The purpose of the Code of Student Conduct is to define the general standard of conduct expected of students registered at The University of Western Ontario, provide examples of behaviour that constitutes a breach of this standard of conduct, provide examples of sanctions that may be imposed, and set out the disciplinary procedures that the University will follow. For more information, visit http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/board/code.pdf.

English Proficiency for the Assignment of Grades

Accommodation for Medical Illness or Non-Medical Absences
The University recognizes that a student’s ability to meet his/her academic responsibilities may, on occasion, be impaired by medical illness. Illness may be acute (short term), or it may be chronic (long term), or chronic with acute episodes. The University further recognizes that medical situations are deeply personal and respects the need for privacy and confidentiality in these matters. However, in order to ensure fairness and consistency for all students, academic accommodation for work representing 10% or more of the student’s overall grade in the course shall be granted only in those cases where there is documentation indicating that the student was seriously affected by illness and could not reasonably be expected to meet his/her academic responsibilities.

A UWO Student Medical Certificate (SMC) is required where a student is seeking academic accommodation. This documentation should be obtained at the time of the initial consultation with the physician or walk-in clinic. An SMC can be downloaded under the Medical Documentation heading of the following website: https://studentservices.uwo.ca/secure/index.cfm.

Documentation is required for non-medical absences where the course work missed is more than 10% of the overall grade. Students may contact their Faculty Academic Counselling Office for what documentation is needed. Whenever possible, students who require academic accommodation should provide notification and documentation in advance of due dates, examinations, etc. Students must follow up with their professors and their Academic Counselling office in a timely manner. Documentation for any request for accommodation shall be submitted, as soon as possible, to the appropriate Academic Counselling Office of the student’s Faculty of registration. For BHSc students, you may go to the School of Health Studies Office in HSB room 222.

Scholastic Offences
Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence, at the following website:

Additionally,

1. All required papers may be subject to submission for textual similarity review to the commercial plagiarism detection software under license to the University for the detection of plagiarism. All papers submitted for such checking will be included as source documents in the reference database for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of papers subsequently submitted to the system. Use of the service is subject to the licensing agreement, currently between The University of Western Ontario and Turnitin.com (http://www.turnitin.com).

2. Computer-marked multiple-choice tests and/or exams may be subject to submission for similarity review by software that will check for unusual coincidences in answer patterns that may indicate cheating.

Support Services

There are various support services around campus and these include, but are not limited to:

1. Student Development Centre -- http://www.sdc.uwo.ca/ssp/
2. Student Health -- http://www.shs.uwo.ca/student/studenthealthservices.html
3. Registrar’s Office -- http://www.registrar.uwo.ca/
4. Ombuds Office -- http://www.uwo.ca/ombuds/
