Arts and Humanities Days - April 9 & 10, 2015
Thanks to Alena Robin and those who participated in making this a successful event showcasing our department.

Italian Events:

Tues., Mar. 3, 2015: Grade 11 and 12 students visited from Saint Michael’s College School in Toronto. They participated in an Italian 1030 class; attended an Italian program presentation; met with students majoring and minoring in Italian; toured campus; and had lunch provided by the dept.

The Italian Cineclub Series ended with a one-day conference “Re-thinking Italian Resistance: History, Literature, Music and Cinema.” C. Caracchini, L. Mosco, P. Pirani, and L. Pocci presented papers from various theoretical perspectives. Robert Ventresca, Nicolas Virtue and Tony Calcagno from King’s, and Damjana Bratuz from Music also participated.

For the second year, 1st, 2nd and 3rd year students of Italian, delighted the audience in Conron Hall, at the Serata Italiana, with original poetry written in Italian, poetry readings from Italian Nobel Laureate Salvatore Quasimodo, mise-en-scene of an excerpt from Marco Micone’s Voiceless People, songs by Bellini and arias from Mozart’s Le nozze di Figaro and Così fan tutte.
