

Museum of _____ Ontario Archaeology

"Forgotten Women - "Dreaming Ourselves Alive Again"

A multi-media art exhibition - artist & curator - Dr. Gloria Alvernaz Mulcahy
September 3 to November 18, 2010

Through Gloria's powerful photographs, enlightening text, poignant movie and thoughtful poetry, this exhibition will put a human face on the more than 580 Missing and Murdered Aboriginal Women from across Canada. Visitors will come to have a better awareness and understanding of the root causes and the magnitude of these losses.

The exhibition will be accompanied by these supporting events, with both non-Native and First Nations participants welcome.

Sept. 24 ~ 7:00-9:00 PM - Official Opening Ceremony and Reception for Art Exhibition

Oct 1 ~ 7:00-9:00 PM - Documentary Film night

Oct 2 ~ 2:00-4:00 PM - Art Speaks: Language and Arts workshop for First Nations children and youth

Oct 29 ~ 7:00-9:00 PM Poetry reading by the author, Gloria Alvernaz Mulcahy from her book "Borderlands & Bloodlines".

Nov 5~ 7:00-9:00 PM - Panel Discussion: Speaking Out / Indigenous Women & Violence moderated by Gloria Alvernaz Mulcahy

Nov 6 ~ 1:00-3:00 PM - Kizhaay Anishnabe Niin - I am a Kind Man

- Mino Bimandiziwin - Good Life -- Honouring Our Children

Nov 13 ~ 1:00-3:00 PM - Kanawayhitowin - Taking Care of Each Other's Spirit.

Nov 18... Exhibition Closes

Exhibition sponsored by these generous organizations

CREVAWC-Centre for Research and Education on Violence against Women and Children

LCCEWA- London Coordinating Committee to End Woman Abuse

University of Western Ontario
Department of Visual Arts - Department of English
Faculty of Education - First Nations Centre
Faculty of Social Science

SOAHAC -Southwest Ontario Aboriginal Healing Access Centre

Museum of Ontario Archaeology
1600 Attawandaron Road
London
519-473-1360
www.uwo.ca/museum
Open 10-4:30 Wed to Sunday