Deadline to submit video recording in online application (voice, piano)	January 8, 2024
Audition (strings, woodwinds, brass, percussion)	January 9, 2024
Final Round	January 13, 2024

Eligibility

Candidates must be full-time registered students in the DWFOM for 2023-2024; currently registered in applied music; and intend to be registered students during 2024-2025. DMA students are not eligible. This competition is open to all instruments.

Selection Process and Repertoire

The Concerto Competition consists of a preliminary round and a final round. Music should be selected from the concerto repertoire, i.e. solo instrument and orchestra, or solo voice and orchestra. Repertoire should be selected in consultation with the applied studio professor and the Symphony Orchestra director. Candidates must contact the Symphony Orchestra director via email to confirm that their repertoire selection is approved before they submit their online application. Failure to consult the Symphony Orchestra director on the proposed repertoire may result in a change of repertoire for the winner(s) at the time of performance.

1. Preliminary Round

Students must complete the online application and submit it no later than January 8, 2024, 12 p.m. The Academic Departments & Student Services Office (TC 210) is available to assist students throughout the process. The divisional requirements for the preliminary round are as follows:

Dates have been reserved in von Kuster Hall for voice and piano applicants to book a recording time (at no cost to the applicant). All recording dates and information are listed under "Preliminary Round Recording Information." Recording timeslots will be booked online and the link will be sent by email. If you're not sure how to book a timeslot, contact mpsdept@uwo.ca. The deadline to sign up for a recording is November 7, 2023 at 12 pm.

From the recordings the jurors will select a maximum of four (4) students, from each of the four divisions, who will advance to the final round.

2. Final Round

The Final Round will take place on Saturday, January 13, 2024, at 12 p.m. in von Kuster Hall. Each finalist will play no longer than 10 minutes of their choice from their selected work. The jurors for the Final Round will be the MPS Department Chair and four external judges.

Winners Information

The winners of the Western University Maritsa Brookes Concerto Competition 2023-2024 will be announced at the end of the Final Round.

First place winner will be invited to perform his/her selected work in the 2024-2025 academic year with the Western University Symphony Orchestra. The winner must be registered as a student in the Don Wright Faculty of Music in 2023-2024 and also intend to be a registered student during 2024-2025. In addition, the winner will receive a monetary award of $2,000 to be received in the fall, following the competition.

Second place winner will receive an honourable mention as runner-up, receive a monetary award of $1,500, and may be offered performance or rehearsal opportunities with a Western University ensemble in the 2024-2025 academic year.

Third place winner will receive an honourable mention as runner-up, receive a monetary award of $1,000, and may be offered performance or rehearsal opportunities with a Western University ensemble in the 2024-2025 academic year.
