

STRINGS AT WESTERN

Bachelor of Music
Master of Music
Doctor of Musical Arts

Western
Music

Don Wright Faculty of Music

music.uwo.ca/divisions/strings

STRINGS AT WESTERN

Playing a good instrument can make a huge difference in a young musician's progress. It can expand a player's imagination of tone production and tone colour. Our String Instrument Bank is a collection of fine instruments and bows for select violin, viola, cello and bass students in Music Performance with Italian, French and English instruments and bows, all maintained by luthiers.

FULL TIME STRINGS FACULTY

Annette-Barbara Vogel* violin

Sharon Wei viola

Thomas Wiebe cello

PART TIME STRINGS FACULTY

Nicolas Carlucci violin

Robert Kubica guitar

Mel Martin violin

Joseph Phillips double bass

Irene Tandberg violin

Wilma van Berkel guitar

Division Coordinator*

STRINGS DIVISION HIGHLIGHTS

- Generous funding opportunities
- Annual concerto competition
- Rich performance opportunities
- Enhanced experiences with residencies from New Orford String Quartet and Tafelmusik Baroque Orchestra
- Weekly performance classes
- Up to 90 minute lesson times
- Our attentive faculty members cater to each student's individual needs and prepare them for success in their career.

Western  Music

Don Wright Faculty of Music

519-661-2111 x80532

music@uwo.ca

music.uwo.ca/divisions/strings