

Clinical Academic Faculty Position
Department of Paediatrics, Division of Endocrinology
Schulich School of Medicine & Dentistry
The University of Western Ontario

The Department of Paediatrics, Children's Hospital, London Health Sciences Centre, The University of Western Ontario, London Ontario, Canada, is seeking a fully certified Paediatric Endocrinologist. Salary and rank will be determined by experience and qualifications at the time of appointment. Candidates must hold an MD or equivalent and be eligible for licensing in the Province of Ontario. Specialist certification in Paediatrics through the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada or equivalent is required. Assistance will be available for immigration and licensing requirements, if applicable.

Children's Hospital is the only tertiary care centre between Toronto and Winnipeg, serving a population of over 500,000 children and youth. The Endocrinology Program has a comprehensive array of services encompassing the full spectrum of endocrinology disorders in childhood and providing an extensive diabetes outreach program in close collaboration with the Northern Ontario Diabetes Network. We are immersed in high caliber obesity and diabetes research in partnership with adult endocrinology and basic science. The Department of Paediatrics in London has 51 full time academic physicians, 6 basic scientists and 10 community physicians providing a full array of Paediatric sub-specialty services. Children's Hospital has 58 general paediatric beds, 12 intensive care beds, 42 neonatal beds and an extremely active emergency department.

London has a population of 400,000 people with the amenities of a big city but friendliness of a small town. London is located in the heart of the great lakes region, 2 hours from Toronto and Detroit. The University of Western Ontario is a research-intensive institution with a wide range of academic and professional programs (see <http://www.uwo.ca/> and <http://www.goodmovelondon.com> to learn more). Western's Recruitment and Retention Office is available to assist in the transition of successful applicants and their families.
