ACADEMIC POSITION - DIVISION OF NEPHROLOGY

The Department of Medicine, Division of Nephrology, Schulich School of Medicine & Dentistry, at The University of Western Ontario, and its affiliated hospitals are seeking a Nephrologist for a full-time clinical academic appointment to The University of Western Ontario. Applicants should be certified, or eligible for certification in Nephrology, by the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada, or equivalent. Candidates must have an MD or equivalent, and must be eligible for licensure in the province of Ontario.

The Division of Nephrology currently consists of 16 academic Nephrology clinicians educator/researchers and serves a referral population of over 1.5 million people. The new position will be primarily located at the Victoria Hospital site, where there are at present 8 full-time academic Nephrologists. Applicants for this position will have a commitment to, and demonstrated aptitude for, clinical teaching. Approximately 30% of the successful applicant's time will be protected for teaching and other academic activities. The successful candidate will be expected to teach at the Undergraduate and Graduate level and to take a leadership role in administering the Division of Nephrology Training Program. The candidate will also be expected to take a full role in the clinical activities carried out by the Nephrology Program. Interest and experience in interventional nephrology would be an advantage. Preference will be given to applicants with training and qualifications in medical education.

The University of Western Ontario is situated in picturesque London, Ontario, a city of approximately 360,000 along the banks of the Thames River. The City of London is a vibrant community with many family-friendly amenities and has one of the lowest cost of living rates in Ontario. The University of Western Ontario is a prominent academic institution that has made a commitment to balance its teaching and research mission and excel as a research intensive university. General information about the University can be found at <http://communications.uwo.ca/comms/>. Information about the Schulich School of Medicine & Dentistry can be found at www.schulich.uwo.ca

Consideration of applicants will include an assessment of previous performance, qualifications, including qualifications which go beyond the requirements for the position, and experience. The financial arrangement is competitive. Rank, term of appointment and salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Those interested in applying for these positions should forward a statement of interest, a curriculum vitae and have at least three letters of reference sent to:
