ACADEMIC POSITION - DIVISION OF GASTROENTEROLOGY

The Department of Medicine, Division of Gastroenterology, Schulich School of Medicine & Dentistry, at The University of Western Ontario, and its affiliated hospitals is seeking a physician for full-time clinical academic appointment to The University of Western Ontario. Applicants should be certified, or eligible for certification, by the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada, or equivalent. Candidates must have an MD or equivalent, and must be eligible for licensure in the province of Ontario.

The Division of Gastroenterology currently consists of 15 academic Gastroenterology clinicians educator/researchers and serves a referral population of over 1.5 million people. The candidate will be expected to take a full role in the clinical activities carried out by the Gastroenterology Division. Preference will be given to applicants with training and qualifications in inflammatory bowel disease, liver diseases, motility and medical education.

The University of Western Ontario is situated in picturesque London, Ontario, a city of approximately 360,000 along the banks of the Thames River. The City of London is a vibrant community with many family-friendly amenities and has one of the lowest cost of living rates in Ontario. The University of Western Ontario is a prominent academic institution that has made a commitment to balance its teaching and research mission and excel as a research intensive university. General information about the University can be found at <http://communications.uwo.ca/comms/>. Information about the Schulich School of Medicine & Dentistry can be found at www.schulich.uwo.ca

Applicants for this position will also have a commitment to, and demonstrated aptitude for, teaching and will be expected to teach at the undergraduate and graduate levels and to supervise graduate trainees. Expected role includes education of fellows, residents, and medical students in an ACE Unit, out-patient, and community/regional outreach setting. Opportunities include team innovative and educational program development. Consideration of applicants will include an assessment of previous performance, qualifications, including qualifications which go beyond the requirements for the position, and experience. Rank, term of appointment and salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Those interested in applying for these positions should forward a statement of interest, a curriculum vitae and have at least three letters of reference sent to:
