Please note offerings could be assigned to the workload of full-time faculty or to part-time faculty with seniority or preference rights in accordance with the Collective Agreement, or left unfilled based on operational/enrolment requirements.

The calendar description of undergraduate courses offered in our Department is available at <http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/2011/index.html>. More information on the Department is available at http://www.uwo.ca/womens/undergrad/course_description.html

Candidates must have qualifications appropriate to the courses for which application is being made and a demonstrated record of performance in teaching.

In accordance with the Collective Agreement, consideration of applicants will include an assessment of previous performance, experience, and qualifications, including qualifications which go beyond the requirements for the position.

Candidates must be willing to undertake training as required by the Employer including, but not limited to, training in respect of health and safety, harassment and discrimination, and legislated service standards.

Candidates must apply using the application form available at <http://www.uwo.ca/pvp/facultyrelations/forms/LD%20Application.pdf> or from the Department of Women's Studies and Feminist Research, or from the Office of the Dean, University College, Room 112. In addition to the application form, candidates should submit a curriculum vitae and evidence of successful teaching, together with the names and contact information of qualified individuals who could be contacted about their teaching experience and ability, to:

Dr. Tracy Isaacs
Chair, Department of Women's Studies and Feminist Research
