PROCEDURES/REQUIREMENTS

A number of US Public Health Service (PHS) agencies, including the NIH, have implemented stringent requirements pertaining to the reporting of Significant Financial Interests (SFIs) and the reporting and management of Financial Conflicts of Interest (FCOI) that affect all investigators and co-investigators, their spouses and their dependent children. The intended purpose of these PHS requirements is to promote objectivity in the design, conduct and reporting of PHS-sponsored research.

In order to remain eligible for funding, investigators applying for or holding PHS grants must follow the steps outlined below. The process of each step is detailed in the RD&S Procedures on Financial Conflicts of Interest (FCOI) in Public Health Service (PHS) Funded Research.
