Resources & Tools

Western’s Copyright Decision Map.

1. Is the material you wish to copy still protected by copyright?
2. Is your proposed use “substantial”?
3. Does permission exist in the form of a licence?
4. Is your proposed use allowed under a statutory exception?
5. Do you need to secure copyright clearance?

Western’s Fair Dealing Analysis

1. Consider the purpose for copying
   - Research
   - Private study

2. Consider the other fairness factors
   - Goal of the dealing
   - Amount of the dealing
   - Character of the dealing
   - Alternatives to the dealing

3. Determine the degree of fairness
   - Nature of the work
   - Effect of the dealing on the work

4. Acknowledge creator and source
