

Senate Elections: Faculty – SGPS – Arts & Humanities constituency

The following faculty members have been nominated for the SGPS – Arts & Humanities constituency on the Senate (term from July 1, 2015 – June 30, 2017). The statements and photos of candidates, if available, have been included below.

1. BROWN, Christopher – Arts & Humanities, Classics
2. McDAYTER, Mark – Arts & Humanities, English & Writing Studies

BROWN, Christopher

McDAYTER, Mark

I am a vocal advocate for the principles of university self-governance, and believe that Senate should function as a conduit not merely for communication but also for ideas between the upper administration and the various communities that comprise the university. I support an activist approach to the challenges that Western faces, and believe that there are more commonalities binding our diverse fields and disciplines than separating them.
