ALIBHAI, Kameela – Health Sciences, Kinesiology

DAMJI, Rahina – Health Sciences

As a senator representing the Undergraduate Health Sciences student body, I aim to empower students by voicing their opinions and concerns within the University’s student government. I hope to represent the ideals and values of Health Sciences students and collaborate with other faculties to give students the most enriching experience. In my role I aspire to remain an engaged member of the Health Sciences community as a vocal representative of my fellow students.
