

THE UNIVERSITY OF WESTERN ONTARIO
THE DEPARTMENT OF GENDER, SEXUALITY AND WOMEN'S STUDIES
GSWS 1022G GENDER, JUSTICE, CHANGE: WINTER 2023

Western University is situated on the traditional land of the Anishinaabeg, Haudenosaunee, Lenape and Attawandaron peoples who have longstanding relationships to the region of southwestern Ontario and the City of London. Within proximity to Western, there are 3 First Nations communities: the Chippewas of the Thames First Nation, Oneida Nation of the Thames, and Munsee Delaware Nation. In the region of southwestern Ontario, there are 9 First Nations and a growing Indigenous urban population. Western recognizes the significant historical and contemporary contributions of local and regional First Nations and all 11 of the Original peoples of Turtle Island (North America) to the development of Canada.

Instructor: Dr. Bipasha Baruah, Professor & Strategic Focus (Climate Change and Gender Equality) Western Research Chair

Class Format:

Lecture

All lectures for this course will be held online asynchronously, i.e. with no timeslot assigned. You may access the lectures and course materials any time you wish on OWL.

TA Office hours

There are no tutorials for this course, but TAs will hold weekly (in-person or online) office hours. Each student will be assigned to a TA. Students may reach out to the TA assigned to them with any questions about lectures, assignments, and exams.

Instructor Office Hours: I will hold in-person office hours every Wednesday from 1 pm to 3 pm EST. If you need to see me, please stop by my office (Lawson Hall 3244) during those 2 hours. If this time slot doesn't work for you or if you would prefer to meet online, please email me. We'll set up a Zoom meeting.

Email Policy: Students can expect a response to emails within 48 hours. We will not accept assignments submitted via e-mail. Please submit all assignments through OWL. See below for details on submission policies.

Course Prerequisites: None

Course Description:

The 21st century is simultaneously a time of crisis and opportunity for issues of gender equality and social justice. This interdisciplinary course will introduce students to the ways in which social movements are informed by and take up global gender issues. Students will learn about struggles for economic empowerment, education, poverty alleviation, human rights and security, environmental protection, peace, good governance, and political representation.

Course Objectives and Student Learning Outcomes

This course seeks to enable students to accomplish the following objectives:

1. To demonstrate an understanding of contemporary global gender issues;
2. To describe and critically analyze how gender issues are integrated into social, political, economic, and environmental movements;
3. To optimize learning through course readings, lectures, films, case studies, guest speakers, and interactions with instructors and classmates;
4. To provide students with the opportunity to relate course content to their daily lives, future studies, and careers.

Course Texts and Resources:

1. Cynthia Enloe. Bananas, Beaches and Bases: Making Feminist Sense of International Politics. [Second Edition]. 2014. University of California Press.
2. Manjushree Thapa. All of Us in Our Own Lives. 2018. Freehand Books.

Student Assessment:

1. Midterm: 30% of course grade (due February 17 before 11:55 pm EST)
2. Film Review (1,000-word max): 15% (due March 3, before 11:55 pm EST)
3. Book Review (1,000-word max): 15% (due March 31, before 11:55 pm EST)
4. Final Exam: 40% (TBA April 13-30)

Film Review and Book Review: Students are expected to write a review of the documentary, Bhutto, and a review of the novel, All of Us in Our Own Lives. Please look under Assignments on OWL for content, style, and formatting guidelines for writing the two reviews.

Midterm and Final Exam: The midterm and final exam will be designed to provide students with an opportunity to demonstrate their understanding and application of course content. Both short answer and essay-type questions will appear in the exams. Students will not be asked to respond to multiple-choice questions. The instructor will provide students with a study guide and the list of potential essay-type questions two weeks in advance. The midterm and the final exam will be administered online; students will have 48 hours to complete the midterm and final exam.

Grading Criteria in Gender, Sexuality and Women's Studies

A+ (90 to 100)

One could scarcely expect better from a student at this level

A (80 and up)

Superior work which is clearly above average

- Challenging and specific thesis that is clearly developed
- Correct and interesting sentence structure
- Sophisticated writing style
- Appropriate documentation
- Quotations well integrated into the text, with proper documentation
- Evidence of originality or independence of thought
- Provision of strong analysis
- Complexity, and subtlety in approach to subject
- Well-organized with a logical development of the argument

B (70 to 79)

Good work, meeting all requirements, and eminently satisfactory

- Clear development of a specific thesis, with proper paragraphs
- Correct sentence structure
- Adequate documentation
- Allowance for some (minor) problems such as:
  - errors in factual content or interpretation
  - some minor errors in terminology or general writing skills
  - occasional lapses in clarity, including vagueness, incompleteness, flaws in structure
- Provision of some analysis

Note: A grade in the range of 75-79 indicates an essay that borders on an A but has some significant flaw that prevents giving out the higher grade.

C (60 to 69)

Competent work, meeting requirements

- Generally correct but tends to provide more description than analysis
- Tends to be too general or superficial in the handling of material
- Weaknesses in argument including a descriptive thesis, a mechanical approach, lack of adequate evidence, documentation, or support

- Problems with grammar or matters of style
- Simplicity of thought, structure, or expression

D (50 to 59)

Fair work, minimally acceptable

- Does not provide an argument or a line of thought
- Major difficulties with logical structure, and expression of ideas
- Topic has not been thought through
- Errors of grammar and diction interfere with understanding
- Over-generalization with inadequate support, evidence, or documentation

F (49 and down)

Fail

- Assignment submitted does not apply to course
- Basic requirements of the assignment are not met
- Plagiarism with intent to deceive (to be handled by the department)

How this course will run:

Students are responsible for viewing each lecture and completing weekly readings.

If you have questions about the lecture, readings, or anything else pertaining to the course, you should first reach out to your TA. If your TA is unable to respond satisfactorily to your query or concern, you should email me at bbaruah@uwo.ca.

In order to be considered on time, all assignments must be submitted via OWL before the date and time they are due. Submissions will not be accepted by e-mail. Detailed assignment descriptions are available under the assignments tab on OWL

Course Policies:

Academic Integrity/Plagiarism: Scholastic offences are taken seriously, and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence, at the following website:

https://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic\_policies/appeals/scholastic\_discipline\_undergrad.pdf <https://www.lib.uwo.ca/tutorials/plagiarism/>

Attendance Policy: While it is expected that students will access and watch the lecture, students are not required to “attend” the lecture for this course at a specific time or place.

Late Assignments: Late assignments will be penalized 2% per day (including weekends) unless there is a valid reason and proper documentation has been filed.

Medical Policy: Students seeking academic accommodation on medical grounds for any missed tests, exams, participation components and/or assignments worth 10% or more of their final grade must apply to the Academic Counselling office of their home Faculty and provide documentation. Academic accommodation cannot be granted by the instructor or department. For UWO Policy on Accommodation for Medical Illness see the online Academic Calendar.

The Policy on Accommodation for Medical Illness can be found here: https://www.uwo.ca/arts/counselling/procedures/medical\_accommodation.html

Mental Health Resources: Students who are in emotional/mental distress should refer to Mental Health at Western. Visit the following site for a complete list of options about how to obtain support: <http://www.uwo.ca/uwocom/mentalhealth/>

Missed Assignments: Academic accommodation must be requested within 28 days of the missed assignments.

Note for Students with Disabilities: Please contact ws-ugrad@uwo.ca if you require any information in plain text format, or if any other accommodation can make the course material and/or physical or digital space accessible to you. You may also contact aew@uwo.ca to find out the full range of services available to you.

Self-Reported Absences: Students will have up to two (2) opportunities during the regular academic year to use an on-line portal to self-report an absence during the term, provided the following conditions are met: the absence is no more than 48 hours in duration, and the assessment for which consideration is being sought is worth 30% or less of the student's final grade. Students are expected to contact their instructors within 24 hours of the end of the period of the self-reported absence, unless noted on the syllabus. Students are not able to use the self-reporting option in the following circumstances:

- for exams scheduled by the Office of the Registrar (e.g., December and April exams)
- absence of a duration greater than 48 hours,
- assessments worth more than 30% of the student's final grade,
- if a student has already used the self-reporting portal twice during the academic year

If the conditions for a Self-Reported Absence are not met, students will need to provide a Student Medical Certificate if the absence is medical or provide appropriate documentation if there are compassionate grounds for the absence in question. Students are encouraged to contact their Faculty academic counselling office to obtain more information about the relevant documentation.

Students should also note that individual instructors are not permitted to receive documentation directly from a student, whether in support of an application for consideration on medical grounds, or for other reasons. All documentation required for absences that are not covered by the Self-Reported Absence Policy must be submitted to the Academic Counselling office of a student's Home Faculty.

For Western University policy on Consideration for Student Absence, see Policy on Academic Consideration for Student Absences - Undergraduate Students in First Entry Programs and for the Student Medical Certificate (SMC), see:

http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic\_policies/appeals/medicalform.pdf.

Religious Accommodation: Students should consult the University's list of recognized religious holidays, and should give reasonable notice in writing, prior to the holiday, to the Instructor and an Academic Counsellor if their course requirements will be affected by a religious observance. Additional information is given in the Western Multicultural Calendar.

Turnitin: All required papers may be subject to submission for textual similarity review to the commercial plagiarism detection software under license to the University for the detection of plagiarism. All papers submitted via OWL will be included as source documents in the reference database for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of papers subsequently submitted to the system. Use of the service is subject to the licensing agreement currently between the University and Turnitin.com.

WINTER 2023 COURSE SCHEDULE (Enloe refers to the textbook, Bananas, Beaches and Bases. Readings marked with an * are posted online. Look under Readings on OWL)

Note about readings: I do not always agree with the readings I assign. You are not always expected to agree with them either. The readings are assigned to enable you to think critically and form your own opinions. Learning to read critically doesn't mean that you must always criticize everything you read. It means engaging with and articulating both the strengths and weaknesses of the arguments presented.
