Portfolio Evaluation Criteria

The focus of the Honors Specialization in Creative Writing and English Language and Literature is on creative and critical approaches to contemporary creative writing practices in a variety of literary genres such as poetry, fiction, creative non-fiction, literary journalism, screenwriting, and playwriting. Academic essays will not be considered.

The adjudicators will be looking for writing that demonstrates an ability to communicate original creative ideas both technically and conceptually in relation to the genre in which the work is situated.

The work adjudicated for potential acceptance will be chosen on the basis of the originality of ideas, language, and voice; the range of writing ability and explorations; the depth and breath of literary engagement; and the technical quality of the writing.

For the 2013-14 academic year, please send (from your Western University e-mail account) Portfolios to The Program in Writing, Rhetoric, & Professional Communication at writing@uwo.ca . If you do not receive e-mail confirmation of receipt of your Portfolio within two working days, contact the Program office as soon as possible. Portfolios received beyond 30th April 2013 might not be considered.
