PERSONAL STATEMENT
Please attach a personal statement (no more than 400 words) explaining why you are interested in taking part in the Study Tour and how this experience will contribute to your undergraduate education. Please discuss your plans for the future and explain how participation in the program will help you achieve your goals.

CURRICULUM VITAE
Please attach a short c.v. detailing your work and academic credentials, especially your experience with Classics and Ancient History. Be sure to include any previous experience related to archaeology, classical studies, museums and heritage, as well as a list of the relevant courses you have taken that provide background information that prepares you for the program (in any department).

DEPOSIT
All applicants are required to provide a deposit of $500 with their application. This deposit should be a cheque made payable to the UWO Department of Classical Studies. Your cheque will not be deposited until you have accepted admission into the program. Cheque will be returned to those who are not accepted or choose not to participate.

DUE DATE AND SUBMISSION
To be eligible for consideration for admission to the 2025 program, complete applications should be submitted in hard copy to the Department of Classical Studies main office (Lawson Hall 3205) by 4pm on Wednesday, October 30th, 2024. Please also email an electronic copy to Dr. Bernd Steinbock at bsteinbo@uwo.ca and Dr. Gino Canlas at gcanlas@uwo.ca . We will hold interviews with candidates in November. Students will be notified of decisions before the Christmas Break. Please note that if you are accepted to take part in the program, you will be required to attend preparatory meetings in the winter term at a time to be decided that works for everyone taking part in the program.
