SOAR: Pathway to Wellness

New Name, New Look

We begin our journey towards better health in the SOAR: Pathway to Wellness Program in 2018 with the quality improvement activities beginning this year! With our new program name, SOAR: Pathway to Wellness, we also have a finalized logo.

Save the Date for Your First Workshop

Calling all QI Teams, Facilitators and Data Keepers! Your first workshop has been scheduled for May 3-4, 2018 in London, ON. Please mark your calendar! Invitations and details for booking travel and accommodations to come soon.

Recognition of Our Partners

Coming soon to your inboxes! We are hard at work creating a visual recognition of our community and organizational partners. Our goal is to move beyond listing our partners to a dynamic and interactive diagram allowing visitors to our website to identify who is a part of SOAR: Pathway to Wellness and to learn more about our partners by linking to their websites.

SOAR Website

Check us out:

<http://tndms.ca/research/soar/index-new.html>

The website is a great place to find information on SOAR: Pathway to Wellness, presentations, training videos, Mentor videos and other tools as well as workshop and meeting information. The website will be our central, go-to-place for all things SOAR. Pictures from our Launch Meeting and Forging New Pathways Social & Networking event held in October 2018 are up on the website now!

Communication Platforms

Based on the conversations at the Launch Meeting World Café on KT and Communications, here is what you asked for:

- 1. Website – central site, share point, Q&A section, online chat feature, highlight champions and videos, incorporate discussion board
- 2. Social Media – Facebook ideal for connecting people, main SOAR page, connect to community-level pages and community health centre pages

- 3. Email – keep them short and sweet
- 4. Newsletters – short and sweet, link to website
- 5. Skype for Business – channel for quick communication

So...coming soon – a SOAR Facebook page.

If you have or are willing to download Skype for Business for easy communication between us, let us know!!
