

Department of Earth Sciences

Presents the

C. Gordon Winder Lecture

Dr. Deborah McGregor

Anishinaabe (Whitefish River First Nation)

Associate Professor and Canada Research Chair: Indigenous Environmental Justice
Osgoode Hall Law School and Faculty of Environmental and Urban Change, York University

Earth Based Reconciliation: Toward Planetary Well Being

Date: Wednesday, November 22, 2023

Time: Doors open at 5:00 pm

Talk begins at 6:30 pm

Location: Wampum Learning Lodge, Main Room (Dome)
Western University Campus

Professor McGregor's research has focused on Indigenous knowledge systems and their various applications in diverse contexts including environmental and water governance, environmental and climate justice, health and environment and Indigenous legal traditions. Professor McGregor remains actively involved in a variety of Indigenous communities, serving as an advisor and continuing to engage in community-based research and initiatives. Professor McGregor has been at the forefront of Indigenous environmental and climate justice and Indigenous research theory and practice. Her work has been shared through the Indigenous Environmental Project website <https://www.yorku.ca/research/project/iej/>

Please visit Eventbrite.ca to register for this talk

Western Science