Essay Topics:

Essay 1: Scene Analysis (500-750 words) 10% Due Thursday, 16 October 2014

Choose ONE scene from the play, and in a 500-750 word essay analyse the scene in terms of such elements as theme, literary devices, and patterns of imagery, character development, staging techniques, and relationship to the play as a whole.

Essay 2: Narrative Essay (750-1000 words) 10% Due Friday, 14 November 2014

Write an essay of 750-1000 words explaining your role in the production and discussing the ways in which this experience has affected your understanding of the play. Hint: Please note that the final essay is due just over two weeks later, because of the requirement to submit grades on time to the department. Therefore, it would be advisable to work on both Essay 2 and 3 at the same time.

Choose ONE of the following questions, and write a 1250-1500 word research essay. Use at least two secondary sources to frame your own argument answering this question. Use MLA format and document meticulously!

1. Does this play condemn or endorse Faustus's choices? How does it represent his scientific and imperialistic aspirations? Does it make him an exemplar of Renaissance man?
2. What is the specific function of the devils in Doctor Faustus? How do they complicate the representation of the hero, of religion, and of the theatre itself in this play?
3. What is the most important prop used in Doctor Faustus? Why? What kind of theatre does this play exemplify and how does it challenge the boundaries of the stage?
4. What are some of the effects of the comic subplot in Doctor Faustus? How do the comic characters relate to the theatrical and historical context of this play? What do textual scholars say about the development of the comic scenes?
