Essay Topics:

Essay 1: Scene Analysis (500-750 words) 10%: Due Thursday, 13 October 2016

Choose ONE scene from the play, and in a 500-750-word essay analyze the scene in terms of such elements as theme, literary devices, and patterns of imagery, character development, staging techniques, and relationship to the play as a whole.

Essay 2: Narrative Essay (750-1000 words) 10%: Due Friday, 18 November 2016

Write an essay of 750-1000 words explaining your role in the production and discussing the ways in which this experience has affected your understanding of the play. Hint: Please note that the final essay (Essay 3) is due just under three weeks later, because of the requirement to submit grades on time to the department. Therefore, it would be advisable to work on both Essay 2 and 3 at the same time: i.e. very early in the term.

Essay 3: Short Research Essay (1250-1500 words) 40%: Due Wednesday, 7 December 2016

Choose ONE of the following questions, and write a 1250-1500-word research essay. NB: Narrow the topic down to make it as specific as possible! Use at least two secondary sources to frame your own argument answering this question. Respond to those critics. Don't just copy their ideas, but show how yours differ from theirs. Use MLA format and document meticulously. This is a critical essay, so you need a clear argument/thesis. Be sure to talk to me early about your ideas for this thesis and how to research the question.

1. How does the first quarto edition of Hamlet differ from the second quarto and folio editions in terms of performance? Why is it valuable to perform this version of the play? What can this version in performance tell us about the longer and more-often performed second quarto, folio, or conflation of the two preferred editions?
2. How does performing Hamlet on a thrust stage differ from performance in a proscenium arch theatre or on film? What can this type of blocking reveal about how the play might have been performed in the early seventeenth century? How does the audience interaction with play change when the performance is on a thrust stage?
3. Why is costuming important in this play? What in the text relates to costume choices and what does the production history of Hamlet reveal about the significance of clothing and costuming in this tragedy?
4. What is the relationship between Four Elements and Q1 Hamlet? How do the two performances show aspects of Early Modern theatre? What contrasting and what connecting elements (sorry about that) can you examine in order to demonstrate the importance of understanding allegorical drama and Renaissance tragedy?
5. What is the relationship between the music in this production of Q1 Hamlet and the texts of both Hamlet and Four Elements? What can you find out about the history of musical settings and adaptations of Hamlet in earlier centuries?
