The calendar description of undergraduate courses offered in the academic units is available at <http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/>. In accordance with the Faculty Collective Agreement, consideration of applicants will include an assessment of previous performance, experience, and qualifications, including qualifications which go beyond the requirements for the positions.

Course offerings could be assigned to the workload of full-time faculty or to part-time faculty with seniority or preference rights in accordance with the Faculty Collective Agreement or left unfilled based on operational/enrolment requirements. All positions are subject to budget approval.

While every attempt has been made to ensure the listing of academic units with Limited-Duties vacancies is accurate, it is advisable for candidates to also check the notice boards in each academic unit for complete details.

Applicants should have fluent written and oral communication skills in English. The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Western is committed to employment equity and diversity in the workplace and welcomes applications from women, members of racialized groups, Indigenous peoples, persons with disabilities, persons of any sexual orientation, and persons of any gender identity or gender expression.

In accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, priority will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents.

Accommodations are available for applicants with disabilities throughout the recruitment process. If you require accommodations for interviews or other meetings, please contact Human Resources at ASK HR <https://www.uwo.ca/hr/contact.html> or phone 519-661-2194.

Please Note: Recent Western graduates who are foreign nationals may be eligible to work on campus. Please refer to the Citizenship and Immigration Canada website under Post-Graduation Employment at <http://www.cic.gc.ca/english/study/index.asp>.
