

FACULTY POSITION
SCHOOL of KINESIOLOGY
LIMITED-TERM APPOINTMENT in EXERCISE and MOVEMENT SCIENCE

The School of Kinesiology in the Faculty of Health Sciences at Western University promotes the benefits of physical activity to society by providing a multidisciplinary approach to discovery, dissemination, and application of knowledge about human movement and related outcomes. In accordance with this mission, we are seeking a Limited-Term appointment to coordinate and teach lab sections within our integrated exercise science courses (i.e., biomechanics, exercise physiology, and human movement). The goal of these courses is to integrate physical activity theory with movement-based and practical lab experiences. The courses will focus on individual and group fitness and sport skills, strength and conditioning, exercise for specific populations, biomechanical analysis of human movement, and physiological response to exercise.

The ideal candidate must have a Master's degree (minimum requirement) in Kinesiology, or a closely related field, and demonstrated technical expertise and practical experience delivering exercise and movement science courses. Knowledge of biomechanics and exercise physiology is required. Certification with national or international bodies (e.g., CSEP, ACSM, OKA, NSCA) and/or registration within related health professions will be considered an asset. The successful candidate will have experience developing and teaching courses in traditional and flexible learning environments, managing projects, and coaching/leading others. The candidate will also be expected to develop and foster relationships with community organizations and participate in relevant service to the School of Kinesiology, Faculty of Health Sciences, and the University. The effective date of the appointment is July 1, 2023, or as negotiated, for a three-year term (renewable). Rank and salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Western University delivers an academic experience second to none. Western challenges the best and brightest faculty, staff, and students to commit to the highest global standards.
