

Academic Breast Surgeon
Department of Surgery, Division of General Surgery
Western University
London Health Sciences Centre, St. Joseph's Health Care London

Posting Date: June 21, 2024

Position Profile: A Full-time Limited Term Clinical Academic appointment at the rank of Assistant Professor or Associate Professor, or a Continuing Clinical Academic appointment at the rank of Associate Professor or Full Professor, depending upon experience and qualifications at the time of appointment. The Division of General Surgery is affiliated with London Health Sciences Centre, St. Joseph's Health Care London and the Norton and Lucille Wolf Breast Care Center and is presently comprised of 27 surgeons with busy clinical practices. The Division has a strong clinical research interest and is an accredited Royal College training program.

The Norton and Lucille Wolf Breast Care Center (BCC) at St Joseph's Health Care consolidated the majority of breast care for London and region in 2012. The center is a fully integrated ambulatory unit including diagnostic imaging, breast surgery and reconstructive surgery providing exemplary patient center care. It is a high-volume center performing 13,700 screening mammography, assessing 8000 patients, and performing 800 operations per year. Strong research links include the London Breast and Prostate Biobank located at St Joseph Health Care, Lawson Research Institute and London Regional Cancer Program.

Academic and Clinical Expectations: The successful candidate must have a strong interest in breast disease and oncological surgery. The candidate will also be responsible for coverage of London and surrounding area. The successful candidate must be interested in pursuing a strong academic career and will be expected to participate actively in the Division's academic, research and education initiatives including teaching and supervision of undergraduate students, postgraduate trainees and fellows. Applicants considered at the rank of Associate or Full Professor must have demonstrated the ability to publish in the highest quality academic and subspecialty outlets and be a recognized expert in their field of research.

Qualifications: The successful candidate must have an MD or equivalent; have completed an accredited General Surgery training program; have advanced training in breast disease or a recognized surgical oncology fellowship, or demonstrate clinical experience in General Surgery; have a strong research interest and/or an advanced degree; and be eligible for licensure in the Province of Ontario.

Compensation Details: Compensation for this position will be commensurate with qualifications and experience and will be primarily composed of the following sources: Fee for service (OHIP billings), Alternative Funding Plan, academic salary, and specialty review funding.

The City: London, Ontario. London is Canada's 10th largest city with a population of 400,000, a catchment area of 2 million, and is situated in southwestern Ontario between Toronto and Detroit. The region has a diverse economy and excellent educational opportunities. It is a safe and diverse city and its numerous parks, trails, recreational, cultural and sporting opportunities make it an attractive place to live.

The University: Western University is a research-intensive university with full-time enrolment of about 34,000 students with a full range of academic and professional programs. The Schulich School of Medicine & Dentistry provides an outstanding educational experience within a research intensive environment where tomorrow's physicians, dentists and health researchers learn to be socially responsible leaders in the advancement of human health.

To apply: Applications will be accepted until the position is filled. Review of applications will begin after July 14, 2024 with an anticipated start date of August 1, 2025 or as negotiated. Interested candidates are to provide the following as part of their application package:

- a letter of interest
- a statement of academic qualifications
- curriculum vitae,
- the names and addresses of three references (must be individuals who have worked with the applicant within two years with one reference being a direct supervisor)
