The Department of Pathology and Laboratory Medicine in the Schulich School of Medicine & Dentistry at Western University, London Health Sciences Centre, and St. Joseph’s Health Care, is seeking one Anatomical Pathologist for a clinical academic appointment.

Position Profile: Candidates will hold a full-time, limited-term clinical academic appointment at the rank of Assistant or Associate Professor or a continuing appointment as a Full Professor, depending upon experience and qualifications at the time of appointment. Applicants should have subspecialty training or experience in hematopathology. Applicants will also be expected to be a member of at least one other subspecialty surgical pathology service.

Qualifications: Candidates must hold an MD or equivalent and be eligible for medical licensure with the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario and must have postgraduate training/qualifications in Anatomical or General Pathology. Preference will be given to applicants who hold certification from the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada or the American Board of Medical Specialties. Applicants considered at the rank of Associate or Full Professor must have demonstrated the ability to publish in high quality academic and subspecialty journals and be a recognized expert in their field of research.

Academic and Clinical Environment: The Department of Pathology and Laboratory Medicine, a joint venture of London Health Sciences Centre (www.lhsc.on.ca) and St. Joseph’s Health Care London (www.sjhc.london.on.ca), is committed to providing a comprehensive range of routine and specialized testing and clinical consultation to patients within Southwestern Ontario and beyond. The Pathology Program is one of the largest single-sited programs in Canada, with an annual workload of approximately 60,000 surgical specimens, 20,000 cytology specimens and 900 autopsies. The department has a long history of collegiality and excellence in many areas of diagnostic service, teaching and research, and represents an environment conducive to career and personal development. The pathology service is subspecialized and the successful candidate would be expected to participate in at least two subspecialty services. The successful candidate will be expected to provide the full range of diagnostic services required of an anatomical pathologist. The ideal candidate should have a strong academic background and will participate actively in the program’s academic initiatives including teaching and supervision of undergraduate students, residents, and clinical fellows as well as research and quality initiatives.

The University and City: The Schulich School of Medicine & Dentistry (www.schulich.uwo.ca) at Western University (www.uwo.ca) is one of Canada’s preeminent medical and dental schools. Established in 1881, it was one of the founding schools of Western University. For more than 130 years, the School has demonstrated a commitment to academic excellence and a passion for scientific discovery. Throughout its history, Schulich Medicine & Dentistry has helped educate generations of physicians, dentists,
