Position Profile

The Department of Family Medicine at the Schulich School of Medicine & Dentistry, Western University, invites applications for a full-time clinical academic appointment in the role of Clinician Teacher at Byron Family Medical Centre in London, Ontario. The Centre, located in southwest London, is a core teaching site for the Department of Family Medicine Urban Program. The appointment will be a Full-time Limited-Term Clinical Academic appointment at the rank of Assistant Professor or Associate Professor, or a Continuing Clinical Academic appointment at the rank of Associate or Full Professor, depending upon experience and qualifications at the time of appointment.

Academic and Clinical Expectations

The successful candidate will provide comprehensive family medicine care across a broad scope of practice, including office-based care, care of the elderly, palliative care, hospital care, long-term care and home visits. Intrapartum obstetrical care is desirable but not mandatory.

The appointee will teach and supervise family medicine residents and medical students in clinical practice and contribute to scholarly activities appropriate to an academic appointment, which may include research, administration and innovation in medical education.

Qualifications

Candidates must hold an MD degree or equivalent, have certification from the College of Family Physicians of Canada and be eligible for licensure with the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario. Experience and interest in teaching are essential; clinical practice experience is preferred. A relevant master's degree, or an interest in pursuing a master's degree in Clinical Science (Family Medicine) or medical education, is preferred.

Compensation Details

Compensation will be based on qualifications and experience and will be composed primarily of clinical income from Ontario Health Insurance Plan billings, an alternate funding plan and base academic salary.

Affirmation Policy Statement

Western, like many postsecondary institutions in Canada, is moving beyond sole reliance upon Indigenous self-identification in its hiring processes. This is to safeguard against the use of incorrect, incomplete, or misleading information in circumstances in which a candidate has made a declaration of Indigenous citizenship or membership. Candidates who are invited for an interview or who are short-listed, and who have made a declaration of Indigenous citizenship or membership for material advantage at Western, including where required or preferred for the position, will be asked to have their declaration of Indigenous citizenship or membership affirmed through a relational accountability process, led by the Office of Indigenous Initiatives (OII), that is consistent with Indigenous ways of knowing, being, and doing. Please contact the OII directly for details on the affirmation processes: https://indigenous.uwo.ca/. The policy can be viewed at: POLICY 1.58 - Affirming Declarations of Indigenous Citizenship or Membership at Western University.
