Lecturer (1-Year Limited-Term)
School of Occupational Therapy

The School of Occupational Therapy (www.uwo.ca/fhs/ot) seeks an academic colleague for a Limited-Term position (1-year) at the rank of Lecturer. The School of Occupational Therapy is one of six schools in the progressive Faculty of Health Sciences (http://www.uwo.ca/fhs/). Candidates must have a Masters in Rehabilitation Sciences, a degree in Occupational Therapy and be registered with the College of Occupational Therapists of Ontario. The successful candidate will have first-hand knowledge of the School’s current curriculum including recent teaching experience in the School and will have expertise and experience with curriculum design and renewal. Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Responsibilities will include: teaching OT9512 Foundations of Practice and OT9532 Movement in Context, as well as leading the School through an extensive curriculum design and renewal.

The accredited School of Occupational Therapy is recognized, nationally and internationally, for leadership in occupational therapy and occupational science. The School is committed to the development of occupational therapy as a science-driven, evidenced-informed, and occupation-focused academic discipline with an established masters (MScOT) entry-level professional program. The School has excellent teaching and research facilities as well as clinical and community facilities to support the development of occupational therapy. The School is a major contributor to the MSc and PhD programs in Health and Rehabilitation Sciences. In partnership with the Graduate Program in Health and Rehabilitation Sciences, the School of Occupational Therapy is the first Canadian program that provides an opportunity to pursue graduate education in Occupational Science and to obtain combined MScOT/PhD degrees.
