

Teaching Scholar Track Positions in Business

The Ivey Business School at Western University, London, Ontario, invites applications in any area of Business for up to three probationary Teaching Scholar (TS) appointments at the rank of Assistant Professor or Associate Professor. Appointments made at the rank of Assistant Professor will lead to consideration of continuing status and promotion to Associate Professor, TS at the end of the probationary period (maximum 6 years). Appointments made at the rank of Associate Professor will lead to consideration of continuing status at the end of the probationary period (maximum 3 years). Rank to be determined by qualifications. The position is available to begin in July 2022, although alternate start dates may be arranged.

Applicants must have a PhD degree in a relevant business discipline. Additional postgraduate training in the field of Education will be an asset. The candidate should be an emerging or established teaching scholar with a keen interest to further develop a strong research program in the scholarship of teaching and learning. The candidate is also expected to have an outstanding track record of classroom teaching and teaching innovations.

The successful candidate is expected to contribute to the teaching mission of our school in all degree programs. The candidate is also expected to engage in scholarly activities that may include (but are not limited to) curriculum development for online classes and evaluation, presentations and publications on teaching technology or pedagogy, research on innovative teaching technology, educational leadership, or other research on education.

Eligibility for Teaching Scholar appointments is open only to those candidates who either currently hold a Limited Term or Limited Duties appointment at Western at the time of recruitment OR former Members who held a Limited Duties or Limited-term appointment at Western at the time of the ratification of the current University of Western Ontario Faculty Association Collective Agreement (29 November 2018).
