

LIMITED-TERM APPOINTMENT IN TAXATION

The Faculty of Law at the University of Western Ontario seeks applications for a one-year limited term appointment in Taxation and related subject areas. The appointment will be at the rank of Lecturer, Assistant Professor or Associate Professor, depending on qualifications and experience. The anticipated start date is July 1, 2022. Salary will be commensurate with the successful applicant's qualifications and experience.

Applicants must have a JD, LLB, or equivalent degree, as well as a relevant graduate degree or its equivalent, which may include a record of successful legal practice. Teaching experience is also an asset.

Successful candidates will be expected to teach several courses in the JD program and actively participate in the mentorship of students and in the academic life of the Faculty of Law.

Western Law has long been an innovator in legal education and offers an unparalleled student experience. Our signature small group program, January Intensive Period, clinical and advocacy programs, and broad curriculum give our students many opportunities to explore their interests and further their professional aspirations. Our faculty include multiple teaching award winners, and we are committed to providing a rigorous, engaging, and supportive learning atmosphere. Western Law is also proud to have offered one of the most extensive in-person academic experiences among Canadian law schools during the pandemic.
