Department of Medical Imaging
Schulich School of Medicine & Dentistry,
Western University and Windsor Regional Hospital

CLINICAL RESEARCHER, DIAGNOSTIC RADIOLOGIST POSITION

Position Profile: The Department of Medical Imaging, Schulich School of Medicine & Dentistry, at Western University, is seeking a physician for a full-time clinical academic appointment to Western University. This position will be based at the Windsor Regional Hospital. Applicants should be certified, or eligible for certification, in Diagnostic Radiology by the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada, or equivalent. Candidates must have an MD or equivalent, and must be eligible for licensure in the province of Ontario. The successful candidate will hold a limited term academic appointment at the rank of Assistant Professor.

Academic and Clinical Environment: The Department of Diagnostic Imaging in Windsor comprises 20 diagnostic and interventional radiologists and nuclear medicine physicians. Successful candidates will participate in the academic and clinical missions of the Department. Clinical service commitments may include, but are not limited to, consultation and management of patients within the diagnostic imaging department.

Qualifications: The successful candidate must be certified in diagnostic and/or interventional radiology with fellowship subspecialty training. Fellowship trained academic radiologists with cardiac imaging, neuro-diagnostic and/or neuro-interventional subspecialty training will be preferred. This position requires the successful candidate to also have demonstrated a commitment to medical imaging research.

It is anticipated that a competitive candidate will also be qualified to lead in research within one of the medical imaging areas of scholarship, patient safety/quality improvement, and medical education. Grant funded research success with proven research output is a requirement for the successful candidate.

The academic and clinical components are based at the Windsor Regional Hospital which is a busy cardiac, trauma and neurosciences center which includes acute stroke management and neurosurgical services. The successful candidate will be expected to also collaborate with the Lawson Research Institute (www.lawsonresearch.ca ) and at the Robarts Research Institute (www.robarts.ca) as deemed applicable by the research interests.

The successful candidate will be an excellent communicator and collaborator with strong leadership skills. As an Academic Radiologist, the successful candidate for this position will have a record of proven ability for teaching and will be expected to teach at the undergraduate and graduate levels.

The successful candidate should be familiar with Ontario’s Health Care system including experience working in an academic, tertiary teaching hospital.

Compensation Details: Compensation will be based on qualifications and experience and will be composed primarily of the following sources: fee for service, alternative funding plan and academic support.
The City: The Windsor Campus is an exciting collaborative venture between Western University, the University of Windsor and the London and Windsor hospitals bringing a 4-year MD program and postgraduate residency training to the Windsor area. The Windsor Campus opened as a formal Regional Medical Campus in 2008. Initially there were 24 Year-1 medical students in 2008, then 30 in 2009 and 38 each year afterwards. Today there are 152 students across four years of undergraduate medical education (UME) in this community. Additionally, the Windsor Campus supports a range of postgraduate training across a variety of specialties including full-time trainees in Family Medicine and Psychiatry. The Campus also supports upwards of 230 visiting residents a year, from London and other communities throughout the country and on an international scale. Windsor Campus is being delivered at the Dr. Murray O’Neil Medical Education Centre on the campus of the University of Windsor, at Windsor Regional Hospital, Hôtel-Dieu Grace Healthcare and at other regional education sites throughout Windsor and Essex County.

The University: Since 1878, Western University has been committed to serving our communities through the pursuit of academic excellence and by providing students, faculty, and community members with life-long opportunities for intellectual, social, and cultural growth. We seek excellent students, faculty, and staff to join us in what has become known as the “Western Experience” – an opportunity to contribute to a better world through the development of new knowledge, new abilities, new connections, and new way to make a difference.
