Clinical Academic Appointments: Clinical Teacher, Department of Family Medicine
Schulich School of Medicine & Dentistry
Western University

The Department of Family Medicine at the Schulich School of Medicine & Dentistry, Western University, is inviting applications for two full-time clinical academic teaching positions within an innovative and exciting Department of Family Medicine.

Candidates must hold an MD or equivalent with certification from the College of Family Physicians of Canada and be eligible for licensure in the Province of Ontario. A relevant master’s degree or interest in pursuing a Master’s in clinical science (Family Medicine) or medical education is preferred. Practice experience is preferred and experience and interest in teaching is essential. Successful candidates will be appointed into Clinical Academic appointments at the rank of Assistant Professor or Associate Professor, depending on the qualifications, interests, and experience. Compensation will be based on qualifications and experience and will be composed primarily of the following sources: fee for service, alternate funding plan and academic support.

The successful candidates will be expected to fill the positions starting July 1, 2017.

The two positions will be located at the Byron Family Medical Centre and Victoria Family Medical Centre in London Ontario. These community based clinics are part of the London Health Sciences Centre and are core teaching units in the Department of Family Medicine. The successful candidates will engage in a full spectrum comprehensive family practice including office-based care, care of the elderly, palliative care, hospital care, long-term care and home visits. Intrapartum obstetrics will be required. Teaching and supervision of family medicine residents, clinical clerks and medical students in the practices will be required. The successful candidates will also be expected to engage in scholarly activities, suitable to an academic practice, such as administration, teaching innovation and research.

The Department of Family Medicine is an academic leader of family medicine in Canada. The Department is committed to developing exemplary family physicians and future leaders in healthcare through clinical excellence, professional education, administrative leadership and robust research.
