ADMINISTRATIVE/UNIVERSITY ISSUES

1. Research Western

Please contact Research Western to determine appropriate actions with any grant holdings. Please notify Natalie Wu, Director Research Services at (519) 661-2111 ext. 81572 or nwu28@uwo.ca

Sabbatical/Research Leaves (paid or unpaid) of more than one year must be reported to the TriAgency by the Awardee and RD&S. The TriAgencies require at least one year between two sabbatical/research leaves for a grant to continue.

2. Departmental Chair

Please ensure that discussions have taken place between you and your Departmental Chair to discuss supervision of Laboratory, graduate students, or staff, if necessary.

3. Employment Confirmation Letters

Please contact the Office of Faculty Recruitment and Retention (OFRR) for a letter confirming your ongoing employment at Western University. This letter may be necessary when applying for any necessary immigration documentation if applying for a Sabbatical abroad.

Contact Information:

facrec@uwo.ca

4. Parking Office

Contact the parking office to return your pass and stop parking payments for the duration of your leave.

5. Western International

Western Worldwide dashboard may assist faculty members who are in the middle of identifying possible partner institutions – it lists Universities around the world with whom Western has a formal agreement/partnership, whether related to research or student mobility.

If you select “International Agreements” in the first drop down menu, you can then either click on the pins on the map or sort the list by country.

6. Alumni Branches for Western University:

Take advantage of Alumni Branches for Western University that are located at both national and international locations:

<http://www.alumni.westernu.ca/get-involved/chapters/regional/>

7. Removal Expense Request Information:

Sabbaticants may apply to have a portion of their salary segregated for moving expenses. Individuals are generally considered to have moved (changed residences) when their new residence is established as the place at which they ordinarily reside as a result of moving themselves, the members of their household, and their possessions. More information can be found at:

PREPARING FOR YOUR LEAVE

1. Financial Institutions

Although automated debit and credit machines may make it easier to access personal bank accounts, accessibility is not guaranteed at smaller locales if traveling outside of Canada. Ensure that you have access to local currency and/or U.S. dollars if traveling abroad.

Notify your financial institution that you will be traveling abroad to ensure that you have full access to your funds. Failure to notify your bank that you will be accessing your credit card in another country, may result in the bank identifying that your credit card has been stolen and it is being used elsewhere.

Contact your financial institution to see if there is a partnering institution in the geographic area to which you will be traveling. Having access to a partnering institution will assist with access to bank accounts and travellers cheques. Also research the currency exchanges between financial institutions as difference institutions have different rates and policies. Some credit cards will also carry additional medical and travel insurance.

It is also important to ensure that your financial institutions are aware of departing and return dates. If a purchase is made using your credit card in another country, your financial institution will contact you using your home contact number. If your financial institution is unable to contact you regarding your credit card purchases, they may freeze or suspend your credit card, as the purchases will not align with your normal purchase pattern.

2. Identification Documents

Ensure all documents are up to date. Plan now as it takes time to renew passports and other identification documents.

Photocopy all identification documents in case of lost or stolen property including:

- Passports
- Work permits
- Travel visas
- Permanent Resident Card
- Airfare and other transportation documentation
- OHIP card
- Additional health insurance

Take a copy of the above documents with you in case any problems arise and file a copy of the documents at home.

3. Home Rentals

If you choose to rent out your home while on sabbatical, please ensure that you have entered into a proper lease agreement and that you recognize your role as a landlord. More information on this topic is included below under “leasing.”

Ensure that you understand insurance implications when renting your home including insurance requirements, car insurance, fire insurance and theft insurance.

a. Advertising:

It is advisable that you advertise your home at least 6 months – 8 months prior to your departure. The Office of Faculty Recruitment and Retention will advertise your home on the Sabbatical page of the Recruitment website. OFRR will also circulate your listing as appropriate to incoming visiting faculty members and new full time hires. However, the following websites will allow you to reach a broader academic audience to advertise your home:

- Sabbaticalhomes.com
- Academichomes.com
- Faculty Recruitment and Retention Sabbatical page
- MedsHousing

b. Leasing

If leasing your home while on sabbatical, it is important to remember that you must understand and adhere to your obligations as a landlord. Review the Residential Tenancies Act to understand what is required of a landlord and tenant under Ontario law:

Residential tenancies Act

<http://www.mah.gov.on.ca/Page137.aspx>

Also ensure that you protect both your rights as a landlord and the rights of your tenant by outlining all aspects of the rental agreement.

Sample lease agreements are available at:

<http://www.freeottawainfo.com/ResidentialLease.pdf>

c. Property Insurance

There is usually an additional cost to insure your home as a rental property during your sabbatical. It is extremely critical to notify your insurance company well in advance of your departure to ensure that you are able to retain your insurance. Some insurance companies may refuse to insure your household effects or your home. Ensure that you familiarize yourself with your coverage to ensure that there are no surprises. You may want to research rented dwelling insurance or short-term renter’s insurance.

d. Property Protection

It is advisable to take photographs of each room in your house and remaining personal property prior to your departure. This is to ensure some protection for the homeowner if anything is damaged, broken or misplaced during your absence. The homeowner is responsible for all maintenance and upkeep including lawn maintenance and snow removal. It may be advisable to designate a friend/trusted handy person in your lease to be a contact person in case of required repairs or maintenance. This individual may also check on your home to ensure that there is no damage or disarray. Another option is to make arrangements with a property management firm.

Specify areas of the house that cannot be repainted or remodeled in any way.

Notify Utilities of a change of name and call in the final reading prior to your leave.

The following link from the Canadian Revenue Agency (CRA) is useful in providing information on the eligible deductions from rental income (e.g. all repairs required to maintain the rental property are deductible from the gross rent. Insurance, property taxes, utilities, and interest on mortgage payments are deductible from rental income).

Prior to your departure, it is advisable that you consult your tax accountant to ensure that you understand all possible deductions, implications and necessary documentation required to provide to CRA when you file your income taxes.

Moving

1. Children and Schools

The documentation and cost required for any school-aged children to attend school will vary according to geographic location. For instance, for a school aged child of a sabbaticant visiting Ontario, the sabbaticant must possess a work permit for the dependent children to attend a public school without paying International fees. It is extremely important to understand the requirements of the specific country and town which you plan to register your child/ren for school.

If your child/ren requires special accommodations, contact your school for official documentation outlining these needs. Contact the school board of the district where you will be visiting to ensure that you have all appropriate documentation to register your child/ren.

Prior to your departure, it is advisable you obtain a signed copy of your children's immunization records from your physician.

Take contact information of your home school to ensure that you are able to confirm any required information with the new school.

2. Vehicles

If you are taking your vehicle to the United States, it is important to verify how long Ontario registration is legal in the state/country in which you will reside. Also ensure that you automobile insurance is adequate in the state/country where you will be driving your car.

3. Driver Licensing

It is legal in Ontario to drive with a license from another country for only three months and out of country vehicles must be registered.

Check with U.S. customs for requirements when taking your car to the U.S. or driving with a Canadian license for an extended period.....

Immigration if Traveling Abroad

1. Passports

Ensure that all family passports are up-to-date. Also verify beforehand the entry requirements of the specific country that you will be visiting during your sabbatical. Some countries will not allow you to enter if your passport's validity is less than 6 months.

2. Entry Documents and Requirements

If you are traveling to countries where you are not a citizen, it is advisable to contact the consulate to see if travel visas are required to enter the country.

Obtain a letter from your employer confirming that you are employed at Western University and that you will be returning to your full academic responsibilities at the end of your Sabbatical.
