Which program do I choose?

- If you wish to continue in SHS, Health Science must be your first choice
- If you don't qualify for your first choice in HS, we will place you in the next highest level module for which you qualify
- Think about courses you enjoyed this year and research programs related to those courses
- When researching a program (via the Academic Calendar - <https://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/>), you are checking to see if:
 1. You have the prerequisite courses
 2. You would be interested in the courses throughout the module
 3. You meet progression (average) requirements for that program

'POSSIBLE' CAREER PATHS

Health Science with Bio

This module is ideal for students who want to pursue careers in medicine and dentistry.

Rehabilitation Sciences

Students wishing to pursue careers in Physical Therapy or Occupational Therapy find the modules in Rehabilitation Sciences offer an excellent knowledge foundation that they can build upon in their graduate studies.

Health Science

Covers all of the above, dependent on your elective choices.

Dual Degree with Ivey Business

ideal choice for students who see themselves pursuing careers in healthcare administration, health management, and health entrepreneurship.

Nursing

As a current Western student, you can “apply” to the nursing program by completing the Intent to Register (ITR) process in March; there will be a Nursing-specific ITR link available at that time. Since this is a separate ITR application form, it will not impact ITR for your current program and/or your ability to apply to graduate. Adjudication will take place in May, and students will be notified of the status of their request once adjudication is complete.

Note: students must have all the required pre-requisites by 30th April 2025

Information about admission for Western transfer students is available on their website at:

<https://www.uwo.ca/fhs/nursing/undergrad/bscn/admission.html>
