Course Description
This course provides students with an introduction to the critical study of global mental health and illness. Through weekly case studies, we will explore how experiences, ideas, and treatment of mental health and illness in particular historical and social contexts connect to the values, norms, and power relations at play in understandings and responses to mental distress within those contexts. We will examine how factors such as workloads, access to resources, environment, and social identity can impact social actors’ mental health and provide opportunities or limit resources available for healing. Readings for this course are taken from a broad range of disciplines (psychiatry, sociology, anthropology, history of science, feminist studies, cultural studies). Our goal is to immerse ourselves into culturally diverse experiences and understandings of mental illness, and the way this shapes options imagined for healing and social inclusion.

Learning objectives

Through this course, students will have the opportunity to:

- Deepen their understanding of socio-cultural and historical dimensions of mental illness and healing
- Practice critical health studies analysis skills through writing and in-class activities
- Unpack and integrate into their research and practice an understanding of the complexities of culture, its pluralism and how one’s cultural context can inform causes, presentations, and responses to mental illness and healing
- Articulate key concepts, origins, and limitations of universalist approaches in Global Mental Health
- Imagine and rationalize strategies for reducing the stigma and burdens associated with mental health in specific contexts
- Apply anti-oppressive and intersectional lens to evidence and analysis

Required readings (course material student must obtain):

1. There are weekly readings in this course as well as assigned media materials (podcasts + video). Course materials are available free of charge to Western students and these will be posted on OWL as hyperlinks in the modules or, if from a library book, in “course readings” section. Please check this site often for updated required class readings, and to keep informed of important course information or announcements.

Student Code of Conduct
The purpose of the Code of Student Conduct is to define the general standard of conduct expected of students registered at The University of Western Ontario, provide examples of behaviour that constitutes a breach of this standard of conduct, provide examples of sanctions that may be imposed, and set out the disciplinary procedures that the University will follow. For more information, visit http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/board/code.pdf.

Health and wellness
As part of a successful undergraduate experience at Western, we encourage you to make your health and wellness a priority. Western provides several on-campus health-related services to help you achieve optimum health and engage in healthy living while pursuing your degree. For example, to support physical activity, all students receive membership in Western’s Campus Recreation Center as part of their registration fees. Numerous cultural events are offered throughout the year. Please check out the Faculty of Music web page (https://music.uwo.ca/) or the McIntosh Gallery (https://mcintoshgallery.ca/). Further information regarding health and wellness-related services available to students may be found at http://www.health.uwo.ca.

If you are in emotional or mental distress should refer to Mental Health@Western Mental Health Support - Health & Wellness - Western University (uwo.ca) for a complete list of options about how to obtain help. To help you learn more about mental health, Western has developed an interactive mental health learning module, found here: Health & Wellness - Western University (uwo.ca)
Accommodation for Medical Illness or Non-Medical Absences

The University recognizes that a student’s ability to meet his/her academic responsibilities may, on occasion, be impaired by medical illness. Illness may be acute (short term), or it may be chronic (long term), or chronic with acute episodes. The University further recognizes that medical situations are deeply personal and respects the need for privacy and confidentiality in these matters. However, in order to ensure fairness and consistency for all students, academic accommodation for work representing 10% or more of the student’s overall grade in the course shall be granted only in those cases where there is documentation indicating that the student was seriously affected by illness and could not reasonably be expected to meet his/her academic responsibilities.

A UWO Student Medical Certificate (SMC) is required where a student is seeking academic accommodation. This documentation should be obtained at the time of the initial consultation with the physician or walk-in clinic. An SMC can be downloaded under the Medical Documentation heading of the following website: http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/medicalform.pdf Documentation is required for non-medical absences where the course work missed is more than 10% of the overall grade. Students should contact their Faculty Academic Counselling Office (not the professor or the TA) for what documentation is needed in their program.

Whenever possible, students who require academic accommodation should provide notification and documentation in advance of due dates, examinations, etc. Students must follow up with their professors and their Academic Counselling office in a timely manner. Documentation for any request for accommodation shall be submitted, as soon as possible, to the appropriate Academic Counselling Office of the student’s Faculty of registration. For BHSc students, you may go to the School of Health Studies Office in HSB room 222.

Electronic devices

During Exams: Unless you have medical accommodations that require you to do so, or explicit permission from the instructor of the course, you may not use any of the following electronic devices during ANY of the tests, quizzes, midterms, examinations, or other in-class evaluations: cellphones, smart phones, smart watches, smart glasses, audio players or recorders of any sort, video cameras, video games, DVD players, televisions, laptop/notebook/netbook computers, flashlights or laser pointers.

During Lectures and Tutorials: Although you are welcome to use a computer during lecture and tutorial periods, you are expected to use the computer for scholastic purposes only, and refrain from engaging in any activities that may distract other students from learning. From time to time, your professor may ask the class to turn off all computers, to facilitate learning or discussion of the material presented in a particular class. Unless explicitly noted otherwise, you may not make audio or video recordings of lectures – nor may you edit, re-use, distribute, or re-broadcast any of the material posted to the course website.
