

Temporary Employment Opportunity in France

Western University Lecteur, Lectrice (lecturer) in English as a Second Language at Aix-Marseille University.

One position: Responsibilities (September 1 to early July) will include the teaching of two or three courses in English as Second Language and work in the language laboratory. Hours of work shall not exceed 12 hours per week. The successful candidate also has a statutory obligation to grade the papers of their classes and monitor exams in December/January, May and July (until mid-July).

Compensation: the selected candidate will receive a net salary of approximately 1,250 euros per month for a period of 12 months, corresponding to the length of their contract (from September 1 to August 31 of the following year). This salary allows them to be covered by the French social security system. Room, board and travel costs will be the responsibility of the successful candidate, who will be eligible to attend any courses offered by AMU with full registration and tuition fees waived.

Education: Must have an MA or equivalent.

Qualifications: Native knowledge of English is required. Experience in Teaching English as a Second Language would be an asset. Must have sufficient knowledge of French to live and work in France.

Other condition: The successful candidate must be registered as a Graduate Student at Western while in France (they can take a leave of absence for the semesters in France).

Contact: Interested applicants should send a letter of application and current CV and one letter of reference to:

Dr. Jean Leclerc
Chair, Department of French Studies
c/o Mirela Parau
mparau2@uwo.ca

Deadline to apply: December 1st, 2022