COURSE DESCRIPTION

French 2406B/2446B for 2013 is one of two half-courses designed to give students a better knowledge and understanding of France, its history and its culture. The course is on a yearly rotation of content.

For the Winter Term 2013, the topics covered are:

- the geography and climate of the country
- the prehistory and antiquity of France
- the Middle Ages and the early dynasties
- the 16th century and the Renaissance
- the 17th century and absolutism

For the Winter Term 2014, the course continues from the 18th century and the Enlightenment to contemporary France and postmodernity. Both courses aim not only to inform students of France's history and culture, but to also shed some light on the complex and culturally diverse persona of the French. The course is given in French and consists of lectures incorporating digital slides, internet content and videos.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

By the end of the course, students will be expected to:

- be able to identify some of the major geographical locations and other landmarks in France.
- have a basic understanding of the historical, social and cultural development of the country, up to the end of the 17th century.

- be able to identify some of the important historical, social and cultural figures, events and achievements.
- acquire a better understanding of what it is to be French, including an appreciation of France's contributions to early Western civilization.

Required Texts:

There are no required texts for the course. A web site has been created that includes the majority of the lectures. This "Internet-based textbook" has no multimedia content whatsoever. Also, in-class lectures convey more information than on the site. Students should make sure they have an active Internet account and access to OWL in order to access the web site.

Distribution of marks:

Report and Abstract:	30%
Midterm Test:	25%
Class Attendance and Participation:	10%
Final Exam:	$\frac{35\%}{100\%}$

French 2406 students: This course is applicable towards the Program Modules offered by the Department of French Studies. Your Report and Abstract will be done in French, with 80% of your grade for content and 20% for grammar and spelling. Your Midterm Test and Final Exam will also be written in French.

French 2146 students: This course is not applicable towards the Program Modules offered by the Department of French Studies. Your Report and Abstract will be done in your choice of French or English, with 95% of your grade for content and 5% for grammar and spelling. Your Midterm Test and Final Exam can be written in French or English.

For all students, grammar and spelling percentages do not apply to the Midterm Test or to some sections of the Final Exam.

Report and Abstract - 30%:

- Each student will prepare a 1,500-word Report (25%) and an Abstract (5%) on a topic of his/her choice. An abstract is a concise summary of the report.
- Report topics and detailed instructions are given the second week of classes. Due dates will be assigned the third week of classes. There is a 2% per weekday penalty for late Reports/Abstracts.
- Abstracts will be between 150 and 200 words. Students will read aloud the abstract, which will conclude with 1 fact-based question and answer. Some of these questions will be used in part of the Midterm Test and Final Exam. Abstracts and questions will be posted on the course web site.

Midterm Test - 25%:

- A two-hour Midterm Test is given in-class on Wednesday, March 20th, 2013. The test includes questions from student Abstracts, and other questions based on course material.

Class Attendance and Participation - 10%:

- The success of your learning experience in any course requires that you regularly attend classes. In French 2406B/2146B, 10% of your mark is based on class attendance. Also, your participation during class, (asking questions, giving answers, participating in discussion), is encouraged and acknowledged.
- Attendance for each day will be recorded and every absence will affect your mark, so it is important to arrive on time and stay until the end of class.
- Each unjustified three-hour class absence will result in a deduction of 1.5% from the Attendance mark. If you miss 7 or more classes, your Attendance mark will be zero. Please advise me in cases of unavoidable absence, such as serious illness or family emergencies, and be prepared to provide documentation to me for justification of short-term absences, (1 class missed) or to the Academic Counsellor of your Home Faculty for long-term absences, (more than 1 class missed).
- Here is a link for the downloadable Student Medical Certificate (SMC), which should be brought with you to your medical appointment in case of illness:
<https://studentservices.uwo.ca/secure/index.cfm>
You'll find the SMC under the Medical Documentation heading on this page.
- If you miss the Midterm Test, you must provide medical or other documentation to the Academic Counsellor of your Faculty for academic accommodation.
- A student is entitled to be examined in courses in which registration is maintained, subject to the following limitations:
  - a) A student may be debarred from writing the final examination for failure to maintain satisfactory standing throughout the year.
  - b) Any student who, in the opinion of the instructor, is absent too frequently from class or laboratory periods in any course, will be reported to the Dean, (after due warning has been given). On the recommendation of the Department concerned, and with the permission of the Dean, the student will be debarred from taking the regular examination in the course.

– from Western's Academic Handbook

Final Exam - 35%:

- There will be a 3-hour Final Exam covering the entire semester, scheduled during the Exam period in April, 2013.

Important Note:

- There will be no class on Wednesday, March 6th, 2013.
