

Western University Department of French Studies

FRENCH 1002

SYLLABUS

2016-2017

Prerequisite: Permission of the Department based on the Placement Test.

Antirequisite: Former versions of 1002, Grade 11U French or equivalent.

Unless you have either the requisites for this course or written special permission from your Dean to enroll in it, you may be removed from this course and it will be deleted from your record. This decision may not be appealed. You will receive no adjustment to your fees in the event that you are dropped from a course for failing to have the necessary prerequisites. – from Western's Academic Handbook

COURSE DESCRIPTION

French 1002 (Beginner) is an intensive course designed for students with little or no experience of French. This course works in conjunction with its following companion course, French 1010 (Intermediate).

French 1002 begins in English with the basics of grammar and its terminology. We then move on to an active learning approach, calling on you to use your critical thinking skills and participate actively in the process of discovering the French language. This will include listening, reading, writing and speaking in French. We will cover Chapters 1-10 of our textbook in French 1002. There is a weekly Tutorial session which supplements in-class instruction. French 1010 picks up where 1002 leaves off and covers the second half of the textbook.

It is strongly recommended that students take both French 1002 and French 1010 for a more complete French learning experience, and to prepare students for first-year university French (French 1910 or 1999) and possible DELF A1 or A2 certification****

COURSE OBJECTIVES

By the end of the course, students will be expected to:

- be able to recognise and identify basic parts of speech.
- understand and use familiar everyday expressions and basic phrases in French aimed at the satisfaction of needs of a concrete type.
- introduce him/herself and others and can ask and answer questions about personal details such as where he/she lives, people he/she knows and things he/she has.
- interact in a simple way if the other person talks slowly and clearly and is prepared to help.

* Students who continue on to French 1010 and successfully complete that course may be skilled enough to write either the DELF A1 or A2 French proficiency test in order to obtain a diploma certifying your French language skills. The Diplôme d'Études en Langue Française is a certification of French-language abilities for non-native speakers of French. These lifelong diplomas are officially awarded by the French Ministry of Education. Please consult this link for more information on DELF and DALF diplomas.

REQUIRED MATERIALS – Available at UCC Bookstore:

1. En bons termes package, Parmentier, Potvin, 10th edition, (Pearson)

The package contains the following 2 components:

- (1) En bons termes Textbook
- (2) MyFrenchLab Access Card

2. French 1002/1003A Coursebook, September 2016.

Note: We do not recommend purchasing a used copy of En bons termes 9th edition. Page references are different and some of the content has been updated in the new edition. Also, you will not have access to the publisher's online site (MyFrenchLab) for the textbook.

DISTRIBUTION OF MARKS:

5 Chapter Tests @ 7%	35%
2 Listening Comprehension Tests @ 5%	10%
1 Oral Test	5%
1 Final Composition	5%
Classroom Attendance and Participation	10%
Tutorial Attendance and Participation	5%
Final Exam	30%
Total	100%

DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM:

CHAPTER TESTS - 50 minutes (5x7% = 35%)

• There are 5 Chapter Tests, each worth 7%. Tests will concentrate on the most recently covered material in the two previous chapters but the tests are cumulative, which means material from past chapters can be used in subsequent Chapter Tests. Each Test will have various types of questions similar to those found in the textbook and Coursebook. A detailed Test Outline will be available before each Chapter Test.

Note: Chapter Quizzes available on OWL are not for marks. The Quizzes include review exercises for each Chapter, and an Answer Key is provided for self-correction.

LISTENING COMPREHENSION TESTS - 30 minutes (2x5% = 10%)

- There are 2 Listening Comprehension Tests, each worth 5%. The Tests are administered during the Tutorial hour near the end of each term. The format will include a dictation and some oral translation exercises.

ORAL TEST - 10 minutes (5%)

- An Oral Test given at the end of the second term. Each student will set up a 10-minute interview with the instructor, scheduled during regular class time. The Oral Test will consist of a reading of your Final Composition, followed by some specific and general questions.

FINAL COMPOSITION (5%)

- A Composition is due at the end of the second term. The Composition is an integral part of the Oral Test. The subject and length is as follows:

La fin des cours! Donnez votre opinion des cours, de vos amis et de l'année en général. Expliquez vos projets pour l'été.

(a variety of tenses)

150 words, every other line.

Important Note: The composition is to be done on your own. You may use dictionaries but you cannot have any outside help, not even for proofreading.

- Please make sure you write the minimum amount of words for the composition, as there is a penalty for compositions that are too short.
- As the Composition is an integral part of the Oral Test, a 2% per working day penalty for late submission will apply plus a 40% automatic penalty in the Oral Test mark if you do not have your Composition ready on the day of your Oral Test.

CLASSROOM AND TUTORIAL ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION (10% + 5%)

- Regular attendance and active participation in class and in tutorials are essential ingredients for success in any language course. We assume you are studying French because you want to listen, speak and interact with others using the language. A credit in French 1002 signifies not just that you have passed written examinations, but that you have “experienced” the language for a certain number of hours.
- Your Attendance and Participation mark for the classroom and tutorial includes +/- 1% for active participation. At the end of the academic year, individual instructors can slightly increase or decrease by 1% your Class and/or Tutorial Attendance mark, based on your participation level during class/tutorial time. These calculations are at the instructors' discretion and cannot be appealed. Instructors will not reward beyond 10/10 (class) or 5/5 (tutorial), and will not penalize below 0/10 (class) or 0/5 (tutorial).
- Attendance for each class and tutorial session will be recorded, so it is important to arrive on time and stay until the end of class.

- If you arrive to class/tutorial after attendance has been taken, it is your responsibility to see the instructor and sign the attendance sheet at the end of the session.
- Each unjustified one-hour class or tutorial absence will result in a deduction of 0.5% from the Attendance and Participation mark. Two- and three-hour class absences will deduct accordingly. If you miss 20 hours or more of class time (10% of your mark) or 10 hours or more of tutorial time (5% of your mark) during the academic year, your Attendance and Participation mark will be zero in class/tutorial, and you will receive a warning message from the Course Coordinator.
- Please advise your instructor by email in cases of unavoidable absence, such as serious illness or family emergencies.
- Be prepared to provide a good reason or excuse to your Instructor for justification of short-term absences, (1 day of classes only).
- Be prepared to provide documentation to your Home Faculty Academic Counsellor for long-term absences, (frequent or consecutive absences).
- Instructors will contact the Course Coordinator when there are frequent or consecutive absences.
- Please also note the following university regulation:
"...Any student who, in the opinion of the instructor, is absent too frequently from class or laboratory [tutorial] periods in any course will be reported to the Dean of the Faculty offering the course (after due warning has been given). On the recommendation of the Department concerned, and with the permission of the Dean of that Faculty, the student will be debarred from taking the regular examination in the course..." – from Western's Academic Handbook

There are cases of French 1002 students failing the course due to excessive absences.

FINAL EXAM - 3 hours (30%)

- A written Final Exam in the April 2017 exam period. There is no exam in the December 2016 exam period.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT MISSED TESTS

- If you miss one (1) Chapter Test for any reason (except for travel arrangements – see below), your instructor will replace your missing Chapter Test mark with the same mark you get on the Final Exam in French 1002. You must contact your instructor with a reason for missing the Test or your mark will be zero with no chance for appeal. For example, you missed Chapter Test #2 due to an illness or a family emergency, so your Chapter Test #2 result is left as blank. You write the Final Exam in April 2017 and you score 73% on the exam. Your instructor now goes back to the Test #2 blank grade and fills in the grade as 73% for the missed Chapter Test.
- If you miss one (1) Listening Comprehension Test for any reason (except for travel arrangements – see below), contact the Course Coordinator by email as soon as possible: Paul Venesoen pvenesoe@uwo.ca
- If you miss more than one (1) Chapter Test or Listening Comprehension Test, contact the Course Coordinator by email as soon as possible: Paul Venesoen pvenesoe@uwo.ca Important: Please obtain/retain documentation explaining your absence for your first Chapter Test in case you miss a second Chapter Test, as you will have to see an Academic Counsellor of your Home Faculty for accommodation for both tests.

When contacting the Course Coordinator about subsequent missed Chapter Tests, or about a missed Listening Comprehension Test, the Course Coordinator's resolution and decision is final and cannot be appealed.

Important note about travel arrangements:

If you have class or tutorial absences and/or you miss a Chapter Test or a Listening Comprehension Test due to travel arrangements, your absences will count against your Class and Tutorial Attendance/Participation mark and you will get zero for any missed Chapter Test or Listening Comprehension Test, with no possibility of appeal. Please check the Weekly Class/Tutorial Program in this document for important dates, and be aware of this policy when making travel arrangements.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT MEDICAL OR COMPASSIONATE ACCOMMODATION IN FRENCH 1002

If you are frequently absent or you miss multiple academic responsibilities for medical or compassionate reasons, you are encouraged to contact the Academic Counselling Office of your Home Faculty for accommodation. Please bring documentation to your appointment. Your Academic Counsellor will decide whether or not to grant accommodation. Please ensure that your Home Faculty Academic Counsellor includes the Course Coordinator, Paul Venesoën (pvenesoe@uwo.ca), in any correspondence relating to accommodation for missed classes and/or tests.

Under no circumstances will you bring any kind of medical or other documentation to your classroom or tutorial instructor.

INFORMATION ON THE MyFrenchLab COMPONENT

Your textbook includes an Access Card for the publisher's MyFrenchLab web site. Instructions for registration are located on the French 1002 OWL site. The MyFrenchLab resource includes Chapter-specific pronunciation and grammar exercises, as well as sample dictations. There is also a vocabulary Glossary with translations and pronunciations, an e-Text version of your textbook and a Verb Chart. This useful resource is an optional component of the course. It is supplementary material for students looking to further prepare/review individual Chapters. While we strongly recommend using the MyFrenchLab online resource for En bons termes, there are no course grades associated with this component.

INFORMATION ON THE TUTORIAL COMPONENT

• Check your timetable for time and location of the Tutorial hour for your section. The tutorial component in French 1002 involves active communication exercises with your tutorial instructor. You will also write the Listening Comprehension Tests in the tutorial.

WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT FROM US

As instructors, we commit ourselves to being on time, well-prepared, and available for consultation. We strive to create a classroom atmosphere where each student is respected and feels comfortable participating. We undertake to provide clear guidelines about what is required in the course and to apply these guidelines with fairness to all students in all sections.

WHAT WE EXPECT FROM YOU

In order to help the class and tutorial function smoothly and to ensure the best possible learning conditions for all, students are asked to exercise courtesy and cooperation in the following ways:

1. Arrive on time and stay until the class or tutorial is dismissed. If you arrive late, please let the instructor know, and make sure you are counted for attendance. If you must leave early for an important reason, please let the instructor know this beforehand.
2. Raise your hand to indicate that you have a question or an answer to contribute. Participation is heartily encouraged, but only one person can be heard at a time. Please don't interrupt the instructor or another student who is speaking.
3. Please don't talk to your neighbours, even to consult about the lesson. No matter how quietly you are speaking, others, including the instructor, may find it distracting. There will be times when you are asked to work in pairs or in groups. Then, of course, you will be speaking to other students. Once the instructor announces the end of that activity, please stop your individual discussions and return your attention to the class.
4. Come to class prepared and equipped with necessary books and completed homework so that you can participate fully, and so that the whole class can progress at a reasonable pace. Be prepared to participate regularly in your language class and tutorial - you will be speaking aloud and you will interact with your instructor and other students during certain exercises.
5. If you have a concern or dissatisfaction about the course, contact your class representative or make an appointment with your instructor to discuss the matter as soon as possible. All sections of the course receive the same syllabus; thus, many aspects of the course are determined by the Course Coordinator, not the individual instructors. Your instructor will refer you to the Course Coordinator if your concern involves a matter that is beyond his/her jurisdiction.

POLICY ON AUDITING

- The Department of French Studies does not allow auditing of language/grammar courses, including this and other sections of French 1002. You must be a registered student officially enrolled in a section of French 1002 in order to take this course.

POLICY ON CELL PHONES AND THE USE OF LAPTOP/TABLET COMPUTERS

- The use of laptops and tablets is not allowed in the classroom during the lecture or the tutorial in any section of French 1002, unless specified by the instructor or for valid, documented medical reasons.
- Please remember to always switch off your cell phone before entering any classroom, and please, no texting or other cell phone activity during class or tutorial. Your cooperation is greatly appreciated.

Thank you, and enjoy your year in French 1002!

Policy on Accommodation for Medical Illness:

http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/academic\_policies/rights\_responsibilities.html

Students seeking academic accommodation on medical grounds for any missed tests, exams, participation components and/or assignments worth 10% or more of their final grade must apply to the Academic Counselling office of their home Faculty and provide documentation. Academic accommodation cannot be granted by the instructor or department. Please note that in all courses offered by the Department of French Studies, this same requirement will also apply to assignments worth less than 10% of the final grade. Final examinations must be written at the scheduled time unless formal alternative arrangements for a Special Examination have been approved (by the instructor, the Department and the Home Faculty Dean's Office) based on valid documented grounds.

A downloadable Student Medical Certificate can be found here:

http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/academic\_policies/rights\_responsibilities.html

Support services

Students who are in emotional/mental distress should refer to Health and Wellness website http://www.health.uwo.ca/mental\_health for a complete list of options about how to obtain help.

Statement on Plagiarism, Cheating and other Scholastic Offences

Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence in the Academic Handbook available on the Academic Calendar website, here: <http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/2015/pg113.html>

Policy on Attendance

"Any student who, in the opinion of the instructor, is absent too frequently from class or laboratory periods in any course, will be reported to the Dean of the Faculty offering the course (after due warning has been given). On the recommendation of the department concerned, and with the permission of the Dean of that Faculty, the student will be debarred from taking the regular examination in the course. The Dean of the Faculty offering the course will communicate that decision to the Dean of the Faculty of Registration."
