COURSE DESCRIPTION

French 2405A/2145A is a course designed to give students a better knowledge and understanding of French Canada, with an emphasis on the province of Quebec.

For the Winter Term 2017, the topics covered are:

- the geography and climate of the province
- the history of French Canada
- the nature of the French language in Canada
- the role of the Church and its influence
- the evolution of the educational system
- the political history of Quebec

The course is given entirely in French and consists of lectures incorporating digital slides, internet content and videos. This course is also recognized by the Faculty of Education as a Canadian History half-credit towards a Bachelor of Education.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

By the end of the course, students will be expected to:

- be able to identify some of the major geographical locations and other landmarks in Quebec.

- have a basic understanding of the historical, social and political development of the province.
- be able to identify some of the important historical, social and political figures and events throughout Quebec's history.
- acquire a better understanding of what it is to be Québécois, including the concepts of sovereignty, separatism, and federal and provincial nationalism.

Required Texts: There are no required texts for the course. A web site has been created which includes the majority of the lectures. This "Internet-based textbook" has no multimedia content whatsoever. Also, in-class lectures convey more information than on the site. Students should make sure they have an active Internet account and access to OWL in order to access the web site.

Distribution of marks:

Report and Abstract:	30%
Midterm Test:	25%
Class Attendance and Participation:	10%
Final Exam:	35%

French 2405 students: This course is applicable towards the Program Modules offered by the Department of French Studies. Your Report and Abstract will be done in French, with 80% of your grade for content and 20% for grammar and spelling. Your Midterm Test and Final Exam will also be written in French.

French 2145 students: This course is not applicable towards the Program Modules offered by the Department of French Studies. Your Report and Abstract will be done in your choice of French or English, with 95% of your grade for content and 5% for grammar and spelling. Your Midterm Test and Final Exam can be written in French or English.

For all students, grammar and spelling percentages do not apply to the Midterm Test or to some sections of the Final Exam.

Report and Abstract - 30%: • Each student will prepare a 1,500-word Report (25%) and an Abstract (5%) on a topic of his/her choice. An abstract is a concise summary of the report. • Report topics and detailed instructions are given the second week of classes. Due dates will be assigned the third week of classes. There is a 2% per weekday penalty for late Reports/Abstracts. • Abstracts will be between 150 and 200 words. Students will read aloud the abstract, which will conclude with 1 fact-based question and answer. Some of these questions will be used in part of the Midterm Test and Final Exam. Abstracts and questions will be posted on the course web site.

Midterm Test - 25%: • A two-hour Midterm Test is given in-class on Tuesday, February 14th, 2017. The test includes questions from student Abstracts, and other questions based on course material.

Class Attendance and Participation - 10%: • The success of your learning experience in any course requires that you regularly attend classes. In French 2405A/2145A, 10% of your mark is based on class attendance. Also, your participation during class, (asking questions, giving answers, participating in discussion), is encouraged and acknowledged.

- Attendance for each day will be recorded and every absence will affect your mark, so it is important to arrive on time and stay until the end of class.
- Each unjustified three-hour class absence will result in a deduction of 1.5% from the Attendance mark. If you miss 7 or more classes, your Attendance and Participation mark will be zero, and you will receive a warning message from me. Please advise me by email in cases of unavoidable absence, such as serious illness or family emergencies, and be prepared to provide a good reason or excuse for justification of short-term absences, (1 day of classes). Be prepared to provide documentation to your Home Faculty Academic Counsellor for longterm absences, (more than 1 day of classes missed consecutively), or if you have more than 2 nonconsecutive short-term absences.
- Here is the link for the downloadable Student Medical Certificate (SMC), which should be brought with you to your medical appointment in case of illness: <https://studentservices.uwo.ca/secure/index.cfm> You'll find the SMC under the Medical Documentation heading on this page.
- If you miss the Midterm Test, you must provide medical or other documentation to the Academic Counsellor of your Faculty for academic accommodation.

Final Exam - 35%: • There will be a 3-hour Final Exam covering the entire semester, scheduled during the Exam period in April 2017.

Policy on Accommodation for Medical Illness:
<https://studentservices.uwo.ca/secure/index.cfm>

Students seeking academic accommodation on medical grounds for any missed tests, exams, participation components and/or assignments worth 10% or more of their final grade must apply to the Academic Counselling office of their home Faculty and provide documentation. Academic accommodation cannot be granted by the instructor or department. Please note that in all courses offered by the Department of French Studies, this same requirement will also apply to assignments worth less than 10% of the final grade. Final examinations must be written at the scheduled time unless formal alternative arrangements for a Special Examination have been approved (by the instructor, the Department and the Home Faculty Dean's Office) based on valid documented grounds.

A downloadable Student Medical Certificate can be found here: <https://studentservices.uwo.ca> under the Medical Documentation heading.

Support services Students who are in emotional/mental distress should refer to Mental Health@Western http://www.health.uwo.ca/mental_health for a complete list of options about how to obtain help.

Statement on Plagiarism, Cheating and other Scholastic Offences Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence in the Academic Handbook available on the Academic Calendar website, here:

<http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/2014/pg113.html> Policy on Attendance “Any student who, in the opinion of the instructor, is absent too frequently from class or laboratory periods in any course, will be reported to the Dean of the Faculty offering the course (after due warning has been given). On the recommendation of the department concerned, and with the permission of the Dean of that Faculty, the student will be debarred from taking the regular examination in the course. The Dean of the Faculty offering the course will communicate that decision to the Dean of the Faculty of Registration.” (Academic Handbook)
