Department of French Studies

FRENCH 1011B

SYLLABUS

Winter 2019

Prerequisite: French 1002 or French 1003AB. Students who do not have the French 1002 or 1003AB prerequisite must take the online French Placement Test and have the results posted on their Academic Record. French 1010 is recommended for scores between 33% and 45.99%. French 1011B is recommended for scores between 46% and 55.99%. Placement Test results have no effect on your grades.

Antirequisites: Ontario Grade 12 French or equivalent. French 1010.

Unless you have either the requisites for this course or written special permission from your Dean to enroll in it, you may be removed from this course and it will be deleted from your record. This decision may not be appealed. You will receive no adjustment to your fees in the event that you are dropped from a course for failing to have the necessary prerequisites. – from Western's Academic Handbook

COURSE DESCRIPTION

French 1011B (Intermediate level) is an accelerated version of the intensive French 1010 course, using the same textbook and Course Book. It is designed for students with a limited knowledge of French, but who are too advanced for French 1010. This course prepares students for first-year university French, (French 1910, 1999 or 1900E), and possible DELF A1 or A2 certification*. French 1900-series courses are admission requirements for French Studies Program Modules.

French 1011B begins with a brief review of the first ten chapters of En bons termes. We then move on to an active learning approach, calling on you to use your critical thinking skills and participate actively in the process of developing your knowledge of the French language. This will include listening, reading, writing and speaking in French.

We will cover Chapters 11-20 of our textbook in French 1011B. The last two chapters, 21 and 22, are not covered. There is a weekly one-hour Tutorial session in addition to three hours of in-class instruction.

For the best French 1011B learning experience :

- Be prepared to actively participate in class and tutorials.
- Supplement your classes with regular weekly review of the material.
- Take advantage of the many resources available to help you learn French.

* Students who continue on to French 1010 and successfully complete that course may be skilled enough to write either the DELF A1 or A2 French proficiency test in order to obtain a diploma certifying your French language skills. The Diplôme d'Études en Langue Française is a certification of French-language abilities for non-native speakers of French. These lifelong diplomas are officially awarded by the French Ministry of Education. Please consult this link for more information on DELF and DALF diplomas.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

By the end of the course, students will be expected to :

- Be able to recognise and identify most parts of speech.
- Understand sentences and frequently used expressions related to areas of most immediate relevance (e.g. personal and family information, shopping, local geography, employment).
- Communicate in simple and routine tasks requiring a simple and direct exchange of information on familiar and routine matters.
- Describe in simple terms aspects of his/her background, immediate environment and matters in areas of immediate need.

REQUIRED MATERIALS – Available at UCC Bookstore:

1. En bons termes* package, Parmentier, Potvin, 10th edition, (Pearson)

The package contains the following 2 components:

- (1) En bons termes Textbook
- (2) MyFrenchLab Access Card

2. French 1010/1011B Course Book, September 2018.

Note: We do not recommend purchasing a used copy of En bons termes 9th edition. Page references are different and some of the content has been updated in the new edition. Also, you will not have access to the publisher's online site (MyFrenchLab) for the textbook.

French 1002/1003AB students from last year do not have to purchase a new textbook or access card.

Important: All students should review the first 10 chapters of En bons termes, including the vocabulary and grammar explanations. There is a Review Test of the first 10 Chapters in January.

For last year's French 1002/1003AB students, this ensures a smoother transition between courses. For all students, the first 10 chapters contain important required material for the Review Test, and this material will also facilitate your French 1011B learning experience.

DISTRIBUTION OF MARKS:

1 Review Test	5%
3 Chapter Tests @ 10%	30%
1 Listening Comprehension Test	10%
1 Oral Test	5%
1 Final Composition	5%
Classroom Attendance and Participation	10%
Tutorial Attendance and Participation	5%
Final Exam	30%
Total	100%

• DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM

REVIEW TEST - 50 minutes (5%)

• There is a Review Test on Monday, January 22nd. This test is a review of the first 10 Chapters in En bons termes. It consists of questions similar to the Chapter 1-10 review questions in the French 1010/1011B Course Book. There is no composition component for the Review Test. A detailed Test Outline will be available before the Review Test.

CHAPTER TESTS - 50 minutes (3x10% = 30%)

• There are 3 Chapter Tests, each worth 10%. Tests will concentrate on the most recently covered material according to the syllabus schedule. The tests are cumulative, which means material from past chapters can be used in subsequent Chapter Tests.

Each Test will have various types of questions similar to those found in the textbook and Course Book. A detailed Test Outline will be available before each Chapter Test.

Note: Chapter Quizzes available on OWL are not for marks. The Quizzes include review exercises for each Chapter and an Answer Key is provided for self-correction.

LISTENING COMPREHENSION TEST - 30 minutes (10%)

• There is 1 Listening Comprehension Test which takes place during your Tutorial hour on Thursday, March 21st. The format will include a variety of comprehension exercises, some oral translation exercises and a dictation.

ORAL TEST - 10 minutes (5%)

• An in-class Oral Test given during the last two weeks of classes. Each student will set up a 10-minute interview with the instructor, scheduled during regular class time. The Oral Test will consist of a reading of your Final Composition followed by some specific and general questions.

FINAL COMPOSITION (5%)

• A Composition (125 words) is due at the end of the second term. The Composition is an integral part of the Oral Test. A choice of topics will be available after Winter Reading Week.

Important Note: The composition is to be done on your own. You may use online or paper dictionaries but you cannot use any online text translation service or have any outside help, not even for proofreading.

- Please make sure you write the minimum amount of words. There is a penalty for compositions that are too short.
- Please do not use online text translation services like Google Translate. The content in your Final Composition should correspond to your proficiency level in French at the end of the semester.
- As the composition is an integral part of the Oral Test, there is a 40% automatic penalty in the Oral Test mark if you do not have your composition ready on the day of your Oral Test.

CLASSROOM AND TUTORIAL ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION (10% + 5%)

- Regular attendance and active participation in class and in tutorials are essential ingredients for success in any language course. We assume you are studying French because you want to listen, speak and interact with others using the language. A credit in French 1011B signifies not just that you have passed written examinations, but that you have “experienced” the language for a certain number of hours. Your Attendance and Participation marks for the classroom and tutorial are a significant 15% of your Final Grade in French 1011B. Active participation is encouraged and recognized.
- Attendance for each class and tutorial session will be recorded, so it is important to arrive on time and stay until the end of class. Arriving more than ten minutes late or leaving before class is dismissed will be considered an absence if not justified.
- If you arrive to class/tutorial after attendance has been taken, it is your responsibility to see the instructor and justify your late arrival.
- Each unjustified one-hour class or tutorial absence will result in a deduction of 1% from the Attendance and Participation mark. Two-hour class absences will deduct accordingly. If you miss 10 hours or more of class time (10% of your mark) or 5 hours or more of tutorial time (5% of your mark) during the term, your Attendance and Participation mark will be zero in class/tutorial, and you will receive a warning message.
- Please advise your instructor by email in cases of unavoidable absence, such as serious illness or family emergencies.
- Be prepared to provide a good reason or excuse to your instructor for justification of short-term absences, (1 day of classes only).

Do not bring any medical or other documentation to your instructor.

- Be prepared to provide documentation to your Home Faculty Academic Counsellor for justification of long-term absences, (frequent or consecutive absences).

• Please also note the following university regulation:

“...Any student who, in the opinion of the instructor, is absent too frequently from class or laboratory [tutorial] periods in any course will be reported to the Dean of the Faculty offering the course (after due warning has been given). On the recommendation of the Department concerned, and with the permission of the Dean of that Faculty, the student will be debarred from taking the regular examination in the course...” – from Western’s Academic Handbook

French 1011B students can fail the course due to excessive absences.

FINAL EXAM - 3 hours (30%)

- A written Final Exam in the April 2019 exam period.

• IMPORTANT ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

MISSED TEST(S)

• If you miss the Review Test (5%), please contact your instructor as soon as possible to see if you can write it later in the week. If you cannot write it that week, your instructor will replace your missing Review Test mark with the same mark you get on the Final Exam in French 1011B. For example, you write the Final Exam in April 2019 and you score 73% on the exam. Your instructor now goes back to the Review Test blank grade and fills in the grade as 73% for the missed Review Test. You must contact your instructor with a reason for missing the Test or your mark will be zero with no chance for appeal.

• If you miss a Chapter Test (10%), you will have to see an Academic Counsellor of your Home Faculty for accommodation. Please be prepared to bring medical or other documentation to your appointment.

• If you miss the Listening Comprehension Test (10%), you will have to see an Academic Counsellor of your Home Faculty for accommodation. Please be prepared to bring medical or other documentation to your appointment.

MEDICAL OR COMPASSIONATE ACCOMMODATION

• If you are frequently absent or you miss multiple academic responsibilities for medical or compassionate reasons, you are encouraged to contact the Academic Counselling Office of your Home Faculty for accommodation. Please bring medical or other documentation to your appointment. Your Academic Counsellor will decide whether or not to grant accommodation. Please ensure that your Home Faculty Academic Counsellor includes your instructor, Paul Venesoen (pveneso@uwo.ca), in any correspondence relating to accommodation for missed classes and/or tests.

Please do not bring any kind of medical or other documentation to your classroom or tutorial instructor.

Only your Home Faculty Academic Counsellors are authorized to review any such documentation.

THE MYFRENCHLAB COMPONENT

• Your textbook includes an Access Card for the publisher's MyFrenchLab web site. Instructions for registration are located on the French 1011B OWL site. The MyFrenchLab resource includes Chapter-specific pronunciation and grammar exercises, as well as sample dictations. There is also a vocabulary Glossary with translations and spoken pronunciations, an e-Text version of your textbook and a Verb Chart.

This useful resource is an optional component of the course. It is supplementary material for students looking to further prepare and review individual Chapters. While we strongly recommend using the MyFrenchLab online resource for En bons termes, there are no course grades associated with this component.

THE TUTORIAL HOUR

• Check your timetable for time and location of the Tutorial hour for your section.

The tutorial component involves active communication exercises with your tutorial instructor. You will also write the Listening Comprehension Tests during the tutorial.

WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT FROM US

As instructors, we commit ourselves to being on time, well-prepared, and available for consultation. We strive to create a classroom atmosphere where each student is respected and feels comfortable participating. We undertake to provide clear guidelines about what is required in the course and to apply these guidelines with fairness to all students in all sections.

WHAT WE EXPECT FROM YOU

In order to help the class and tutorial function smoothly and to ensure the best possible learning conditions for all, students are asked to exercise courtesy and cooperation in the following ways:

1. Arrive on time and stay until the class or tutorial is dismissed. If you arrive late, please let the instructor know and make sure your tardiness is justified. If you must leave early for an important reason, please let the instructor know this beforehand.
2. Raise your hand to indicate that you have a question or an answer to contribute. Participation is heartily encouraged, but only one person can be heard at a time. Please don't interrupt the instructor or another student who is speaking.
3. Please don't talk to your neighbours, even to consult about the lesson. No matter how quietly you are speaking, others, including the instructor, may find it distracting. There will be times when you are asked to work in pairs or in groups. Then, of course, you will be speaking to other students. Once the instructor announces the end of that activity, please stop your individual discussions and return your attention to the class.
4. Come to class prepared and equipped with necessary books and completed homework so that you can participate fully, and so that the whole class can progress at a reasonable pace. Be prepared to participate regularly in your language class and tutorial. You will be speaking aloud and you will interact with your instructor and other students during certain exercises. Please be aware that due to the intensive, accelerated nature of the course, weekly preparation and review before classes is imperative.

5. If you have a concern or dissatisfaction about the course, contact your class representative or make an appointment with your instructor to discuss the matter as soon as possible.

POLICY ON AUDITING

• The Department of French Studies does not allow auditing of language/grammar courses. You must be a registered student officially enrolled in French 1011B in order to take this course.

POLICY ON CELL PHONES AND THE USE OF LAPTOP/TABLET COMPUTERS

• Due to the participatory nature of the course, the use of laptops and tablets is not allowed in the classroom during the lecture or the tutorial, unless specified by the instructor or for valid documented medical reasons.

• Please remember to always switch off (airplane mode) your cell phone before entering any classroom, and please, no texting or other cell phone activity during class or tutorial. Your cooperation is greatly appreciated.

• Unauthorized cell phone or laptop use during classes can result in disciplinary action.

• You can use your electronic devices right up until the start of class and during breaks.

Thank you, and enjoy French 1011B!

Policy on Accommodation for Medical Illness:

www.uwo.ca/univsec/academic_policies/rights_responsibilities.html

Students seeking academic accommodation on medical grounds for any missed tests, exams, participation components and/or assignments worth 10% or more of their final grade must apply to the Academic Counselling office of their home Faculty and provide documentation. Academic accommodation cannot be granted by the instructor or department. Please note that in all courses offered by the Department of French Studies, this same requirement will also apply to assignments worth less than 10% of the final grade. Final examinations must be written at the scheduled time unless formal alternative arrangements for a Special Examination have been approved (by the instructor, the Department and the Home Faculty Dean's Office) based on valid documented grounds.

A downloadable Student Medical Certificate can be found here:

Support services

Students who are in emotional/mental distress should refer to Health and Wellness website uwo.ca/health for a complete list of options about how to obtain help.

Statement on Plagiarism, Cheating and other Scholastic Offences

Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence in the Academic Handbook available on the Academic Calendar website, here: westerncalendar.uwo.ca

Policy on Attendance

"Any student who, in the opinion of the instructor, is absent too frequently from class or laboratory periods in any course, will be reported to the Dean of the Faculty offering the course (after due warning has been given). On the recommendation of the department concerned, and with the permission of the Dean of that Faculty, the student will be debarred from taking the regular examination in the course. The Dean of the Faculty offering the course will communicate that decision to the Dean of the Faculty of Registration."
