Western University is situated on the traditional land of the Anishinaabeg, Haudenosaune, Lenape and Attawandaron peoples who have longstanding relationships to the region of southwestern Ontario and the City of London. Within proximity to Western, there are 3 First Nations communities: the Chippewas of the Thames First Nation, Oneida Nation of the Thames, and Munsee Delaware Nation. In the region of southwestern Ontario, there are 9 First Nations and a growing Indigenous urban population. Western recognizes the significant historical and contemporary contributions of local and regional First Nations and all 11 of the Original peoples of Turtle Island (North America) to the development of Canada.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course explores sport as a site through which the meanings about gender, sexuality, race, ability, citizenship, and culture are constructed and negotiated. Students will draw on feminist and queer theoretical frameworks to interrogate commonly held assumptions about the human body, while attending to the ways that popular discourses about gender, race, and biology frame our understanding of athletic performance. We will consider how sport is used to delineate membership, community and belonging. We will also examine sports’ relationship to commodity culture, specifically the ways in which athletes have been positioned as celebrities and the implications this shift has had on popular culture. Possible topics include gender verification, scientific racism, nationalism, sex and athletic ability.
LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

- Account for the social, historical and political contexts that inform how and when individuals participate in competitive sports.
- Explain how social categories like gender, race, sexuality, citizenship, etc. shape athletes’ experiences with competitors, fans, news media and other stakeholders on and off the court/field/track/etc.
- Evaluate media coverage of athletes using feminist, queer and critical race theories.
- Critically engage with contemporary debates in sports studies.

Correspondence Statement

The centrally administered e-mail account provided to students will be considered the individual’s official university e-mail address. It is the responsibility of the account holder to ensure that e-mail received from the University at his/her official university address is attended to in a timely manner. You can read about the privacy and security of the UWO email accounts here.

Students are encouraged to email the instructor or their tutorial leader if they have questions about the course. Students can expect a response within 48 hours during the work week. Students are not guaranteed a response over the weekend, or on holidays. Only emails using your “@uwo.ca” account will be answered.

COURSE WEBSITE

All course information, including assignments, will be posted on the course website. Go to https://owl.uwo.ca/portal

LATE AND OUTSTANDING ASSIGNMENTS

Late assignments will receive a 2% deduction per day. Weekends count for two days penalty. An assessment cannot be submitted after it has been returned to the class.

Students seeking academic consideration must submit a request within 28 days of the assignment deadline.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Academic dishonesty is a serious offense and will be treated as such in this class. Students should refrain from presenting someone’s work, ideas, opinions and/or writing as their own. Proper citation and referencing are key. Ignorance of plagiarism is not an excuse for representing someone’s work as your own. I strongly encourage all students to familiarize themselves with the university’s policies on academic misconduct.

Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence, at the following Web site: https://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/scholastic_discipline_undergrad.pdf.

TURNITIN
All written assignments must be submitted through Turnitin. Access to Turnitin will be available through the OWL course website. According to university policy: “All required papers may be subject to submission for textual similarity review to the commercial plagiarism detection software under license to the University for the detection of plagiarism. All papers submitted will be included as source documents in the reference database for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of papers subsequently submitted to the system. Use of the service is subject to the licensing agreement currently between the University and Turnitin.com.”

ACCESSIBILITY AND WRITING SUPPORT

Please contact the course instructor if you require material in an alternate format or if you require any other arrangements to make this course more accessible to you. You may also wish to contact Accessible Education (AE) at (519) 661-2147 or aew@uwo.ca for any specific question regarding an accommodation or review The policy on Accommodation for Students with Disabilities.

I also encourage all students to make use of the Writing Support Centre. For further details, visit http://writing.uwo.ca

ACCOMMODATIONS FOR RELIGIOUS HOLIDAYS

The policy on Accommodation for Religious Holidays can be viewed here.

MEDICAL POLICY

I encourage students to read the Policy on Accommodation for Medical Illness at the following link: https://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/accommodation_medical.pdf

Students seeking academic accommodation on medical grounds for any missed tests, exams, participation components and/or assignments worth 10% or more of their final grade must apply to the Academic Counselling office of their home Faculty and provide documentation. Please do not submit medical notes to the instructor or your tutorial leader. Contact your academic counsellor and we will work to develop an appropriate solution.

PROFESSIONALISM & PRIVACY

Western students are expected to follow the Student Code of Conduct. Additionally, the following expectations and professional conduct apply to this course: All course materials created by the instructor(s) are copyrighted and cannot be sold/shared. Recordings are not permitted (audio or video) without explicit permission. Permitted recordings are not to be distributed.

COPYRIGHT AND AUDIO/VIDEO RECORDING STATEMENT

Course material produced by faculty is copyrighted and to reproduce this material for any purposes other than your own educational use contravenes Canadian Copyright Laws. You must always ask permission to record another individual and you should never share or distribute recordings.
